4 "Further amend said bill, page, and section, Line 19, by inserting after said section and line the 5 following:

6
7 "571.201. 1. As used in this section and section 571.202, the following terms mean:

8 (1) "Central repository", the same meaning as defined under section 43.500;

9 (2) "Law enforcement officer", any individual employed by the United States or by a state,
10 county, city, municipality, village, township, or other political subdivision as a police officer or 11 peace officer or in a similar position that involves the enforcement of the law and protection of the 12 public interest;

13 (3) "Licensed dealer", a person who has a valid federal firearms dealer license and all
14 additional licenses required by state or local law to engage in the business of selling or transferring 15 firearms;

16 (4) "Person", any individual, corporation, company, association, firm, partnership, club,
17 organization, society, joint stock company, or other entity;

18 (5) "Transferee", a person who desires to receive or acquire a firearm from a transferor. If a
19 transferee is not a natural person, each natural person who is authorized by the transferee to possess
20 the firearm after the transfer shall be deemed the transferee and subject to the requirements of this 21 section.

22 2. Any person who is not a licensed dealer, before transferring or attempting to transfer
23 possession of a firearm, shall require that a background check be conducted on the prospective
24 transferee and shall obtain approval of the transfer from the central repository after a background
25 check. A person who is not a licensed dealer shall arrange for either a licensed dealer or law
26 enforcement agency to obtain the background check.

27 3. (1) A licensed dealer who obtains a background check on a prospective transferee shall
28 record the transfer and retain the records in the same manner and for the same duration as required
29 under 18 U.S.C. Section 923(g).

Action Taken _____ Date _____

1           (2) A licensed dealer or law enforcement agency that obtains a background check for a
2 prospective firearm transferor shall provide the firearm transferor and transferee a copy of the 3 results of the background check, including the central repository approval or disapproval of the 4 transfer.

5           (3) A licensed dealer or law enforcement agency may charge a fee for conducting a 6 background check, which shall not exceed twenty-five dollars or the cost of conducting the 7 background check, whichever is greater.

8           4. (1) A prospective firearm transferee shall not accept possession of a firearm unless the 9 prospective firearm transferor has obtained approval of the transfer from the central repository after 10 a background check.

11           (2) A prospective firearm transferee shall not knowingly provide false information to a
12 prospective firearm transferor or to a licensed dealer for the purpose of acquiring a firearm.

13           5. If the central repository approves a transfer of a firearm pursuant to this section, the 14 approval shall be valid for thirty calendar days, during which time the transferor and transferee may 15 complete the transfer.

16           6. The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

17           (1) A transfer of an antique firearm, as defined in 18 U.S.C. Section 921, as amended, or a
18 curio or relic, as defined in 27 CFR 478, as amended;

19           (2) A transfer that is a bona fide gift or loan between immediate family members, which 20 shall be limited to spouses, parents, children, siblings, grandparents, grandchildren, nieces, nephews,
21 first cousins, aunts, and uncles;

22           (3) A transfer that occurs by operation of law or because of the death of a person for whom 23 the prospective transferor is an executor or administrator of an estate or a trustee of a trust created in 24 a will;

25           (4) A transfer that is temporary and occurs while in the home of the unlicensed transferee if:

26           (a) The unlicensed transferee is not prohibited from possessing firearms; and

27           (b) The unlicensed transferee reasonably believes that possession of the firearm is necessary
28 to prevent imminent death or serious bodily injury to the unlicensed transferee;

29           (5) A temporary transfer of possession without transfer of ownership or a title to ownership,
30 which transfer takes place:

31           (a) At a shooting range located in or on premises owned or occupied by a duly incorporated
32 organization organized for conservation purposes or to foster proficiency in firearms;

33           (b) At a target firearm shooting competition under the auspices of, or approved by, a state
34 agency or a nonprofit organization; or

35           (c) While hunting, fishing, target shooting, or trapping if:

36           a. The hunting, fishing, target shooting, or trapping is legal in all places where the 37 unlicensed transferee possesses the firearm; and

38           b. The unlicensed transferee holds any license or permit that is required for such hunting,
39 fishing, target shooting, or trapping;

1           (6) Any temporary transfer that occurs while in the continuous presence of the owner of the 2 firearm;

3           (7) Any law enforcement or corrections agency, or law enforcement or corrections officer
4 acting within the course and scope of his or her employment or official duties;

5           (8) A United States marshal, member of the United States Armed Forces or the National
6 Guard, or a federal official transferring or receiving a firearm as required in the operation of his or 7 her official duties;

8           (9) A gunsmith who receives a firearm solely for the purposes of service or repair or the 9 return of the firearm to its owner by the gunsmith;

10           (10) A common carrier, warehouseman, or other person engaged in the business of 11 transportation or storage, to the extent that the receipt of any firearm is in the ordinary course of 12 business and not for the personal use of any such person; or

13           (11) A person who transfers a firearm to a relative who is related within the first degree by 14 consanguinity or affinity.

15           7. A violation of a provision of this section is a class B misdemeanor. Each day a violation
16 of this section is committed or continued shall be considered a separate violation and punished
17 accordingly.

18 8. In addition to any other penalty or remedy, the investigating law enforcement agency shall report
19 any violation of this section committed by a licensed dealer to the attorney general, who shall report
20 the violation to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives within the United States
21 Department of Justice."; and": and

22
23 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references
24 accordingly.
