AN ACT relating to domestic relations; revising provisions governing the division of property and the award of alimony or spousal support in cases involving veterans with a service-connected disability; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Existing law provides that in granting a divorce, a court must make an equal 2 disposition of the community property of the parties and of any property held in 3 joint tenancy by the parties. (NRS 125.150) Section 2 of this bill provides that 4 unless a valid premarital agreement provides otherwise, in making a disposition of 5 such property, the court must not: (1) consider any federal disability benefits 6 awarded to a veteran for a disability connected to his or her service in the military; 7 or (2) indemnify the veteran’s spouse or former spouse, or award the veteran’s 8 spouse or former spouse any of the veteran’s income or property, for a waiver or 9 reduction in military retirement or retainer pay related to the receipt of the veteran’s 10 disability benefits.

11 Existing law provides that under certain circumstances, a court may award
12 alimony or spousal support to either spouse. (NRS 125.150, 125.210) Sections 3 13 and 5 of this bill provide that unless a valid premarital agreement provides 14 otherwise, in determining whether to award alimony or spousal support or the 15 amount of any award of alimony or spousal support, the court must not consider 16 any federal disability benefits awarded to the other spouse for a disability 17 connected to his or her service in the military.

29 Sec. 4. NRS 125.150 is hereby amended to read as follows:

30 125.150 Except as otherwise provided in NRS 125.155 and 31 sections 2 and 3 of this act and unless the action is contrary to a 32 premarital agreement between the parties which is enforceable
33 pursuant to chapter 123A of NRS:

34 1. In granting a divorce, the court:

35 (a) May award such alimony to the wife or to the husband, in a 36 specified principal sum or as specified periodic payments, as 37 appears just and equitable; and 38 (b) Shall, to the extent practicable, make an equal disposition of 39 the community property of the parties, except that the court may 40 make an unequal disposition of the community property in such 41 proportions as it deems just if the court finds a compelling reason to

1 do so and sets forth in writing the reasons for making the unequal 2 disposition.

3 2. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, in granting 4 a divorce, the court shall dispose of any property held in joint 5 tenancy in the manner set forth in subsection 1 for the disposition of 6 community property. If a party has made a contribution of separate 7 property to the acquisition or improvement of property held in joint 8 tenancy, the court may provide for the reimbursement of that party 9 for his or her contribution. The amount of reimbursement must not 10 exceed the amount of the contribution of separate property that can 11 be traced to the acquisition or improvement of property held in joint 12 tenancy, without interest or any adjustment because of an increase in 13 the value of the property held in joint tenancy. The amount of 14 reimbursement must not exceed the value, at the time of the 15 disposition, of the property held in joint tenancy for which the 16 contribution of separate property was made. In determining whether 17 to provide for the reimbursement, in whole or in part, of a party who 18 has contributed separate property, the court shall consider:

19 (a) The intention of the parties in placing the property in joint 20 tenancy;

21 (b) The length of the marriage; and

22 (c) Any other factor which the court deems relevant in making a 23 just and equitable disposition of that property.

24 ↪ As used in this subsection, "contribution" includes, without 25 limitation, a down payment, a payment for the acquisition or 26 improvement of property, and a payment reducing the principal of a 27 loan used to finance the purchase or improvement of property. The 28 term does not include a payment of interest on a loan used to finance 29 the purchase or improvement of property, or a payment made for 30 maintenance, insurance or taxes on property.

31 3. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 125.141, whether or 32 not application for suit money has been made under the provisions 33 of NRS 125.040, the court may award a reasonable attorney's fee to 34 either party to an action for divorce.

35 4. In granting a divorce, the court may also set apart such 36 portion of the husband's separate property for the wife's support, the 37 wife's separate property for the husband's support or the separate 38 property of either spouse for the support of their children as is 39 deemed just and equitable.

40 5. In the event of the death of either party or the subsequent 41 remarriage of the spouse to whom specified periodic payments were 42 to be made, all the payments required by the decree must cease, 43 unless it was otherwise ordered by the court.

44 6. If the court adjudicates the property rights of the parties, or 45 an agreement by the parties settling their property rights has been

1 approved by the court, whether or not the court has retained 2 jurisdiction to modify them, the adjudication of property rights, and 3 the agreements settling property rights, may nevertheless at any time 4 thereafter be modified by the court upon written stipulation signed 5 and acknowledged by the parties to the action, and in accordance 6 with the terms thereof.

7 7. If a decree of divorce, or an agreement between the parties 8 which was ratified, adopted or approved in a decree of divorce, 9 provides for specified periodic payments of alimony, the decree or 10 agreement is not subject to modification by the court as to accrued 11 payments. Payments pursuant to a decree entered on or after July 1, 12 1975, which have not accrued at the time a motion for modification 13 is filed may be modified upon a showing of changed circumstances, 14 whether or not the court has expressly retained jurisdiction for the 15 modification. In addition to any other factors the court considers 16 relevant in determining whether to modify the order, the court shall 17 consider whether the income of the spouse who is ordered to pay 18 alimony, as indicated on the spouse's federal income tax return for 19 the preceding calendar year, has been reduced to such a level that 20 the spouse is financially unable to pay the amount of alimony the 21 spouse has been ordered to pay.

22 8. In addition to any other factors the court considers relevant 23 in determining whether to award alimony and the amount of such an 24 award, the court shall consider:

25 (a) The financial condition of each spouse;

26 (b) The nature and value of the respective property of each 27 spouse;

28 (c) The contribution of each spouse to any property held by the 29 spouses pursuant to NRS 123.030;

30 (d) The duration of the marriage;

31 (e) The income, earning capacity, age and health of each spouse;

32 (f) The standard of living during the marriage;

33 (g) The career before the marriage of the spouse who would 34 receive the alimony;

35 (h) The existence of specialized education or training or the 36 level of marketable skills attained by each spouse during the 37 marriage;

38 (i) The contribution of either spouse as homemaker;

39 (j) The award of property granted by the court in the divorce, 40 other than child support and alimony, to the spouse who would 41 receive the alimony; and

42 (k) The physical and mental condition of each party as it relates 43 to the financial condition, health and ability to work of that spouse.

44 9. In granting a divorce, the court shall consider the need to 45 grant alimony to a spouse for the purpose of obtaining training or

1 education relating to a job, career or profession. In addition to any 2 other factors the court considers relevant in determining whether 3 such alimony should be granted, the court shall consider:

4 (a) Whether the spouse who would pay such alimony has 5 obtained greater job skills or education during the marriage; and

6 (b) Whether the spouse who would receive such alimony
7 provided financial support while the other spouse obtained job skills 8 or education.

9 10. If the court determines that alimony should be awarded 10 pursuant to the provisions of subsection 9:

11 (a) The court, in its order, shall provide for the time within 12 which the spouse who is the recipient of the alimony must 13 commence the training or education relating to a job, career or 14 profession.

15 (b) The spouse who is ordered to pay the alimony may, upon 16 changed circumstances, file a motion to modify the order.

17 (c) The spouse who is the recipient of the alimony may be 18 granted, in addition to any other alimony granted by the court, 19 money to provide for:

20 (1) Testing of the recipient's skills relating to a job, career or 21 profession;

22 (2) Evaluation of the recipient's abilities and goals relating to 23 a job, career or profession;

24 (3) Guidance for the recipient in establishing a specific plan 25 for training or education relating to a job, career or profession;

26 (4) Subsidization of an employer's costs incurred in training 27 the recipient;

28 (5) Assisting the recipient to search for a job; or 29 (6) Payment of the costs of tuition, books and fees for:

30 (I) The equivalent of a high school diploma;

31 (II) College courses which are directly applicable to the 32 recipient's goals for his or her career; or

33 (III) Courses of training in skills desirable for 34 employment.

35 11. For the purposes of this section, a change of 20 percent or 36 more in the gross monthly income of a spouse who is ordered to pay 37 alimony shall be deemed to constitute changed circumstances 38 requiring a review for modification of the payments of alimony. As 39 used in this subsection, "gross monthly income" has the meaning 40 ascribed to it in NRS 125B.070.

41 Sec. 5. NRS 125.210 is hereby amended to read as follows:

42 125.210 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, in 43 any action brought pursuant to NRS 125.190, the court may:

44 (a) Assign and decree to either spouse the possession of any real 45 or personal property of the other spouse;

- 1 (b) Order or decree the payment of a fixed sum of money for the 2 support of the other spouse and their children;
- 3 (c) Provide that the payment of that money be secured upon real 4 estate or other security, or make any other suitable provision; and
- 5 (d) Determine the time and manner in which the payments must 6 be made.
- 7 2. The court may not:
- 8 (a) Assign and decree to either spouse the possession of any real 9 or personal property of the other spouse; or
- 10 (b) Order or decree the payment of a fixed sum of money for the 11 support of the other spouse,
12 ↪ if it is contrary to a premarital agreement between the spouses 13 which is enforceable pursuant to chapter 123A of NRS.
- 14 3. Unless the action is contrary to a premarital agreement
15 between the parties which is enforceable pursuant to chapter 123A
16 of NRS, in determining whether to award money for the support of a 17 spouse or the amount of any award of money for the support of a 18 spouse, the court shall not consider any federal disability benefits 19 awarded to the other spouse for a service-connected disability
20 pursuant to chapter 11 of Title 38 of the United States Code.
- 21 4. Except as otherwise provided in chapter 130 of NRS, the 22 court may change, modify or revoke its orders and decrees from 23 time to time.
- 24 ~~4.~~ 5. No order or decree is effective beyond the joint lives of 25 the husband and wife.
