Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law provides that justifiable homicide is the killing of a human being 2 in necessary self-defense, or in defense of habitation, property or person against a 3 person who manifestly intends or endeavors to commit a felony or to enter the 4 habitation of another for the purpose of assaulting a person who is in the habitation.
5 (NRS 200.120) Section 1 of this bill revises the definition of "justifiable homicide"
6 to include specifically the killing of a person in defense of an occupied motor 7 vehicle or in defense against any person who manifestly intends and endeavors to 8 enter the occupied motor vehicle of another for the purpose of assaulting a person 9 who is in the motor vehicle.

10 Existing law also provides that a killing is justifiable if the circumstances were 11 sufficient to excite the fears of a reasonable person and the person killing really 12 acted under the influence of those fears and not in a spirit of revenge. (NRS 13 200.130) Section 2 of this bill establishes a rebuttable presumption that a killing is 14 justifiable under the standard set forth in NRS 200.130 if the person killing: (1) 15 knew or reasonably believed that the person who was killed was entering 16 unlawfully and with force, or attempting to enter unlawfully and with force, the 17 habitation or property of another; (2) knew or reasonably believed that the person 18 who was killed was committing or attempting to commit a crime of violence; and 19 (3) did not provoke the person who was killed.

20 Existing law prohibits certain persons from owning or having in their 21 possession or under their custody or control any firearm. A person who violates 22 such a provision is guilty of a category B felony. (NRS 202.360) Section 3 of this 23 bill adds to such a list of persons a person who has been convicted in this State or 24 any other state of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence as defined in federal 25 law.

26 Existing law authorizes a court to issue an extended order for protection against 27 domestic violence. (NRS 33.030) Section 5 of this bill provides that if such an 28 extended order is issued, the adverse party is prohibited from purchasing or 29 otherwise acquiring any firearm during the period that the extended order is in 30 effect. A person who violates such a provision is guilty of a category B felony.

31 Existing law provides that in a civil action brought by or on behalf of a person 32 against whom force which is intended or likely to cause death or bodily injury was 33 used: (1) there is a presumption that the person who used such force had a 34 reasonable fear of imminent death or bodily injury to himself or herself or another 35 person if the person against whom such force was used was committing burglary or 36 invasion of the home; and (2) that presumption must be overcome by clear and 37 convincing evidence to the contrary for the civil action to be maintained. (NRS 38 41.095) Section 7 of this bill extends that presumption to circumstances in which 39 the person who used such force was in his or her motor vehicle and the other person
40 was committing grand larceny of the motor vehicle with the use or threatened use 41 of a deadly weapon. Section 7 also enacts a provision, based upon Texas law, 42 which provides that a person is immune to civil liability for using force which is 43 intended or likely to cause death or bodily injury if the person was justified in using 44 such force under the applicable provisions of Nevada criminal law. (Texas Civil 45 Practice and Remedies Code § 83.001)

46 Existing law requires the Department of Public Safety to prepare annually a list 47 of states that have: (1) requirements for the issuance of a permit to carry a 48 concealed firearm that are substantially similar to or more stringent than the 49 requirements set forth in this State; and (2) an electronic database which identifies 50 each individual who possesses a valid permit to carry a concealed firearm by that 51 state and which a law enforcement officer in this State may access at all times.
52 Additionally, a state may only be included in the list if the Nevada Sheriffs' and 53 Chiefs' Association agrees with the Department's inclusion of the state. (NRS 54 202.3689) Existing law also authorizes a person who possesses a permit to carry a

55 concealed firearm that was issued by a state included in the list to carry a concealed
56 firearm in this State in accordance with the laws of this State unless the person: (1)
57 becomes a resident of this State; and (2) has not been issued a permit from the 58 sheriff of the county in which he or she resides within 60 days after becoming a
59 resident of this State. (NRS 202.3688)

60 Existing law requires the Department to annually prepare a list of states which 61 it determines are substantially similar to or more stringent than this State for 62 purposes of issuing a permit to carry a concealed firearm. (NRS 202.3689) Section
63 4.5 of this bill instead requires the Department to determine whether each state 64 requires a person to complete any training, class or program for purposes of 65 preparing the list.

66 Existing law provides that, except as otherwise provided by specific statute, the 67 Legislature reserves for itself such rights and powers as are necessary to regulate 68 the transfer, sale, purchase, possession, ownership, transportation, registration and 69 licensing of firearms and ammunition in this State, and further provides that no 70 county, city or town may infringe upon those rights and powers. (NRS 244.364, 71 268.418, 269.222) Sections 8-10 of this bill expand such rights and powers of the 72 Legislature to include those necessary to: (1) regulate the carrying and storage of 73 firearms, firearm accessories and ammunition; and (2) define all such terms.
74 Sections 8-10 provide that certain ordinances or regulations which are inconsistent 75 with these rights and powers of the Legislature are null and void and require the 76 governing bodies of certain political subdivisions of this State to repeal any 77 such ordinance or regulation. Sections 8-10 also authorize any person who is 78 adversely affected by the enforcement of any such ordinance or regulation on or 79 after October 1, 2015, to file suit in the appropriate court for declarative and 80 injunctive relief and damages. Such a person is entitled to certain damages 81 depending on whether and when the relevant governing body of a political 82 subdivision repeals such an ordinance or a regulation.

83 Existing law also requires certain political subdivisions of this State in a county
84 whose population is 700,000 or more (currently Clark County), which adopted 85 ordinances or regulations before June 13, 1989, that require the registration of 86 firearms capable of being concealed, to make certain amendments to such 87 registration provisions. (NRS 244.364, 268.418, 269.222) Sections 8-10
88 additionally delete the provisions requiring certain political subdivisions of this 89 State to make such amendments.

90 Assembly Bill No. 147 of the 1989 Legislative Session (A.B. 147) reserved for 91 the Legislature the rights and powers necessary to regulate the transfer, sale, 92 purchase, possession, ownership, transportation, registration and licensing of 93 firearms and ammunition in this State. (Chapter 308, Statutes of Nevada 1989, p.
94 652) However, section 5 of A.B. 147 provided that the preemptive effect of the bill
95 applied only to ordinances or regulations adopted by certain political subdivisions 96 on or after June 13, 1989. Section 11 of this bill amends section 5 of A.B. 147 to 97 include and preempt ordinances or regulations adopted by certain political 98 subdivisions before June 13, 1989.
