AN ACT relating to personal financial administration; revising provisions relating to the distribution and administration of the estate of a deceased person; revising provisions governing certain nonprobate transfers; revising provisions relating to the creation and administration of trusts; providing for the creation and administration of public benefit trusts; revising provisions relating to directed trusts; revising provisions relating to the jurisdiction of a court in cases concerning the administration of the estate of a deceased person and the administration of trusts; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

- 1 Sections 1 and 2 of this bill provide methods for recording the termination of a
- 2 life estate in a manner similar to existing law for terminating a joint tenancy.
- 3 Section 3 of this bill establishes the effective date for the existing law
- 4 concerning the effect of divorce on certain instruments.
- 5 Existing law defines the term “interested person” for the purpose of
- 6 determining who is entitled to receive notice of, and participate in, a proceeding
- 7 relating to the estate of a deceased person. (NRS 132.185) Sections 9 and 11 of this
- 8 bill amend this definition to include all persons whose interest in an estate or trust
- 9 will be materially affected by a decision of a fiduciary or a decision of the court and
- 10 that a person’s status as an interested person is determined according to the
- 11 particular purposes of, and the matter involved in, each proceeding.
- 12 Existing law provides that if a decedent executed a will before his or her
- 13 marriage, the will is revoked as to the surviving spouse of the decedent unless the
- 14 spouse is provided for in the will or is mentioned in the will in such a way that
- 15 indicates an intent not to make a provision for the spouse. (NRS 133.110)

16 Section 12 of this bill revises this provision so that such a will is not revoked if the 17 will refers to a future spouse by name.

18 Section 13 of this bill provides that if a declaratory judgment establishing the 19 validity of a will is entered during the lifetime of the person executing the will, 20 the validity of the will cannot be challenged after the death of the person executing 21 the will. Section 13 does not prohibit an action to establish that the will was 22 revoked or that the decedent executed a valid later will.

23 Existing law establishes the qualifications for a person to serve as executor or 24 administrator of a decedent's estate. (NRS 138.020, 139.010) Sections 14 and 16 25 of this bill authorize a court to disqualify a person from acting as the executor or 26 administrator of a decedent's estate upon proof of any compelling reason.

27 Existing law establishes the authority of administrators with the will annexed 28 and the order of appointment for such administrators. (NRS 138.090) Section 15 of 29 this bill provides certain discretionary powers to administrators with the will 30 annexed. Section 15 also provides that a person who is expressly excluded as a 31 beneficiary or as a fiduciary in a will is ineligible to serve as an administrator with 32 the will annexed and that the court has discretion to disregard the order of priority 33 for the appointment of an administrator under existing law to favor the appointment 34 of certain beneficiaries of the will as administrators with the will annexed.

35 Section 17 of this bill provides a technical correction to NRS 143.380 36 concerning the sale of property held in an estate after the personal representative is 37 granted full authority under the Independent Administration of Estates Act.

38 Existing law requires an appraisal of certain property of the estate of a deceased
39 person and an inventory of all estate property. (NRS 144.010, 144.020, 144.040) 40 Sections 18 and 19 of this bill authorize the waiver of such an appraisal or 41 inventory in certain circumstances.

42 Existing law provides that if a person dies leaving an estate the gross value of 43 which, after deducting encumbrances, is $100,000 or less, the estate must not be 44 administered and must be assigned and set apart, after directing such payments as 45 the court deems just, for the support of the surviving spouse or any minor children 46 of the decedent. (NRS 146.070) Section 20 of this bill authorizes the court to 47 reduce the amount assigned and set apart for the surviving spouse or any minor 48 children of the decedent by the amount of certain nonprobate transfers to those 49 persons.

50 Sections 25 and 63 of this bill enact provisions governing personal jurisdiction 51 over certain persons in proceedings related to the estate of a deceased person and 52 the administration of a trust and governing the law to be applied in certain 53 proceedings related to trusts.

54 Existing law creates a presumption that certain transfers at death are void due to 55 fraud, undue influence or coercion. (NRS 155.097, 155.0975) Sections 33 and 34 56 of this bill create the same presumption for certain transfers that occur during the 57 lifetime of the transferor and further define the applicability of when the 58 presumption of undue influence arises. Existing law authorizes the court to impose 59 certain sanctions on a person whom the court finds to be a vexatious litigant in a 60 proceeding related to the administration of the estate of a deceased person or a trust.
61 (NRS 155.165) Section 35 of this bill includes a trustee or a personal representative 62 as a person who may be a vexatious litigant.

63 Existing law enumerates the powers of a trustee. (Chapter 163 of NRS)
64 Sections 40 and 41 of this bill add to the powers of a trustee the power to combine 65 or divide trusts and the power to change the name of a trust in certain 66 circumstances. Existing law governs the administration of directed trusts, which are 67 trusts under which someone other than the trustee has the authority to direct the 68 trustee to take certain actions. (NRS 163.553-163.556) Sections 42, 43, 55 and 56
69 of this bill amend provisions governing directed trusts. Section 55 provides that a 70 trustee of a directed trust is not liable individually or as a fiduciary for a loss

71 resulting from the trustee's compliance with certain directions or failure to take any 72 proposed action that required an approval which was not given or was contingent 73 upon a condition that was not satisfied. Section 44 of this bill provides for the 74 creation and administering of public benefit trusts, which are trusts without 75 identifiable beneficiaries that are not charitable trusts and are established to further 76 one or more specifically declared religious, scientific, literary, educational, 77 community development, personal improvement or philanthropic purpose that is 78 not illegal or against public policy. Existing law provides that a trust may be 79 created by a declaration by the owner of property that he or she holds the property 80 as trustee. (NRS 163.002, 163.004, 163.006) Section 48 of this bill provides that 81 regardless of the formal title to the property, in the absence of a contrary 82 declaration by the owner or a transfer of the property to a third party: (1) property 83 declared to be trust property and all the income and reinvestment thereof remains 84 trust property; and (2) any additions or contributions to accounts or certain other 85 property declared to be trust property are also trust property. Section 49 of this bill 86 clarifies the powers a settlor has in creating terms of a trust and establishes a default 87 position that a trust is irrevocable unless and to the extent a settlor specifically 88 reserves the right to amend such trust.

89 Section 45 of this bill provides for the appointment of a successor trustee where 90 a trust contains no provision for such appointment. Section 46 of this bill 91 authorizes a fiduciary to classify gains from the sale or exchange of trust assets as 92 income for tax purposes. Section 53 of this bill provides that a beneficiary holding 93 a discretionary interest in a trust has no enforceable right to a distribution. Section 94 50 of this bill provides for the creation of charitable and public benefit trusts.
95 Sections 55 and 56 of this bill further extend the provisions establishing the 96 situations in which a directed fiduciary is not liable for actions taken on behalf of 97 the trust. Existing law permits a trustee with discretion or authority to distribute 98 trust income or principal to decant such income or principal to a second trust. (NRS 99 163.556) Section 59 of this bill provides choice of law provisions applicable to the 100 construction and administration of trusts. Section 60 of this bill allows a settlor to 101 include language in the trust requiring that disputes arising thereunder are subject to 102 arbitration and provides a method for such arbitration. Under existing law, in order 103 for a court to assume jurisdiction over a case involving a trust, a petition to confirm 104 a trustee must be filed. (NRS 164.010) Sections 61 and 62 of this bill provide for 105 the creation and enforcement of nonjudicial settlement agreements between all 106 indispensable parties to a trust. Section 63 of this bill provides for a petition 107 requesting the court to assume jurisdiction without confirming the trustee.

108 Section 64 of this bill provides a court with exclusive jurisdiction to determine 109 whether property not formally titled in the name of the trust constitutes trust 110 property and where a person contests the validity of the trust in a declaratory 111 judgment action. Section 64 further defines the circumstances and situations in 112 which a trustee may decant a trust to a second trust in light of federal taxation laws.
113 Section 66 of this bill authorizes a trustee presenting a certification of trust to 114 include a declaration of a trust's domicile and governing law. Under the Uniform 115 Prudent Investor Act, as adopted by this State, a trustee is authorized to take certain 116 action without court approval if all interested persons consent or acquiesce in such 117 action. (NRS 164.725) Section 67 of this bill authorizes a trustee, trust protector or 118 trust advisor to use that same procedure for any aspect of trust administration.
119 Existing law provides that a trustee who invests and manages trust property owes a 120 duty to the beneficiaries to comply with the prudent investor rule set forth in 121 existing law, but that a trustee is not liable to a beneficiary to the extent the trustee 122 acted in reasonable reliance on the terms of the trust. (NRS 164.740) Section 68 of 123 this bill provides that such a trustee is not liable to a beneficiary if the trustee 124 determined in good faith not to diversify the investments of the trust in accordance 125 with existing law.

126 Existing law governs the duty of a trustee to inform and account to a trust's 127 beneficiaries. (Chapter 165 of NRS) Sections 70-85 of this bill revise chapter 165 128 of NRS to restructure the trust accounting rules applicable to testamentary and 129 nontestamentary trusts. Nevada's current law provides different requirements for 130 accountings applicable to testamentary trusts and nontestamentary trusts; these 131 revisions establish one set of accounting rules for both types of trusts.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. NRS 40.515 is hereby amended to read as follows:

31 medium approved by the Department.

32 Sec. 3. NRS 111.781 is hereby amended to read as follows:

33 111.781 1. Except as otherwise provided by the express 34 terms of a governing instrument, a court order or a contract relating 35 to the division of the marital estate made between the divorced 36 persons before or after the marriage, divorce or annulment, the 37 divorce or annulment of a marriage:

38 (a) Revokes any revocable:

39 (1) Disposition or appointment of property made by a 40 divorced person to his or her former spouse in a governing 41 instrument and any disposition or appointment created by law or in a 42 governing instrument to a relative of the divorced person's former 43 spouse;

44 (2) Provision in a governing instrument conferring a general 45 or nongeneral power of appointment on the divorced person's

1 former spouse or on a relative of the divorced person's former 2 spouse; and

3 (3) Nomination in a governing instrument that nominates a 4 divorced person's former spouse or a relative of the divorced
5 person's former spouse to serve in any fiduciary or representative 6 capacity, including a personal representative capacity, including a 7 personal representative, executor, trustee, conservator, agent or 8 guardian; and

9 (b) Severs the interest of the former spouses in property held by 10 them at the time of the divorce or annulment as joint tenants with 11 the right of survivorship or as community property with a right of 12 survivorship and transforms the interests of the former spouses into 13 equal tenancies in common.

14 2. A severance under paragraph (b) of subsection 1 does not 15 affect any third-party interest in property acquired for value and in 16 good faith reliance on an apparent title by survivorship in the 17 survivor of the former spouses unless a writing declaring the 18 severance has been noted, registered, filed or recorded in records 19 appropriate to the kind and location of the property which records 20 are relied upon, in the ordinary course of transactions involving such 21 property, as evidence of ownership.

22 3. The provisions of a governing instrument are given effect as 23 if the former spouse and relatives of the former spouse disclaimed 24 all provisions revoked by this section or, in the case of a revoked 25 nomination in a fiduciary or representative capacity, as if the former 26 spouse and relatives of the former spouse died immediately before 27 the divorce or annulment.

28 4. Any provisions revoked solely by this section are revived by 29 the divorced person's remarriage to the former spouse or by a 30 nullification of the divorce or annulment.

31 5. Unless a court in an action commenced pursuant to chapter
32 125 of NRS specifically orders otherwise, a restraining order 33 entered pursuant to NRS 125.050 does not preclude a party to such 34 an action from making or changing beneficiary designations that 35 specify who will receive the party's assets upon the party's death.

36 6. A payor or other third party is not liable for having made a 37 payment or transferred an item of property or any other benefit to a 38 beneficiary designated in a governing instrument affected by the 39 provisions of this section or for having taken any other action in 40 good faith reliance on the validity of the governing instrument 41 before the payor or other third party received written or actual notice 42 of any event affecting a beneficiary designation. A payor or other 43 third party is liable for a payment made or other action taken after 44 the payor or other third party received written or actual notice of a 45 claimed forfeiture or revocation under this section.

1 7. Written notice of the divorce, annulment or remarriage or 2 written notice of a complaint or petition for divorce or annulment 3 must be mailed to the payor's or other third party's main office or 4 home by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or 5 served upon the payor or other third party in the same manner as a 6 summons in a civil action. Upon receipt of written notice of the 7 divorce, annulment or remarriage, a payor or other third party may 8 pay any amount owed or transfer or deposit any item of property
9 held by it to or with the court having jurisdiction of the probate 10 proceedings relating to the decedent's estate or, if no proceedings 11 have been commenced, to or with the court having jurisdiction of the 12 probate proceedings relating to decedents' estates located in the 13 county of the decedent's residence. The court shall hold the funds or 14 item of property and, upon its determination under this section, shall 15 order disbursement or transfer in accordance with the determination.
16 Payments, transfers or deposits made to or with the court discharge 17 the payor or other third party from all claims for the value of 18 amounts paid to or items of property transferred to or deposited with 19 the court.

20 8. A person who purchases property from a former spouse, 21 relative of a former spouse or any other person for value and 22 without notice, or who receives from a former spouse, relative of a 23 former spouse or any other person a payment or other item of 24 property in partial or full satisfaction of a legally enforceable 25 obligation, is neither obligated under this section to return the 26 payment, item of property or benefit nor is liable under this section 27 for the amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or 28 benefit. A former spouse, relative of a former spouse or other person 29 who, not for value, received a payment, item of property or any 30 other benefit to which that person is not entitled under this section is 31 obligated to return the payment, item of property or benefit or is 32 personally liable for the amount of the payment or the value of the 33 item of property or benefit to the person who is entitled to it under 34 this section.

35 9. If this section or any part of this section is preempted by 36 federal law with respect to a payment, an item of property or any 37 other benefit covered by this section, a former spouse, relative of the 38 former spouse or any other person who, not for value, received a 39 payment, item of property or any other benefit to which that person 40 is not entitled under this section is obligated to return that payment, 41 item of property or benefit or is personally liable for the amount of 42 the payment or the value of the item of property or benefit to the 43 person who would have been entitled to it were this section or part 44 of this section not preempted.

* S B 4 8 4 *

1 10. This section applies only to nonprobate transfers which 2 become effective because of the death of a person on or after 3 October 1, 2015, regardless of when the divorce or annulment
4 occurred.

5 11. As used in this section:

6 (a) "Disposition or appointment of property" includes a transfer 7 of an item of property or any other benefit to a beneficiary 8 designated in a governing instrument.

9 (b) "Divorce or annulment" means any divorce or annulment or 10 any dissolution or declaration of invalidity of a marriage. A decree 11 of separation that does not terminate the status of husband and wife 12 is not a divorce for purposes of this section.

13 (c) "Divorced person" includes a person whose marriage has 14 been annulled.

15 (d) "Governing instrument" means a governing instrument 16 executed by a divorced person before the divorce or annulment of 17 the person's marriage to the person's former spouse.

18 (e) "Relative of the divorced person's former spouse" means a 19 person who is related to the divorced person's former spouse by 20 blood, adoption or affinity and who, after the divorce or annulment, 21 is not related to the divorced person by blood, adoption or affinity.

22 (f) "Revocable," with respect to a disposition, appointment, 23 provision or nomination, means one under which the divorced
24 person, at the time of the divorce or annulment, was alone 25 empowered, by law or under the governing instrument, to cancel the 26 designation in favor of the person's former spouse or former 27 spouse's relative, whether or not the divorced person was then 28 empowered to designate himself or herself in place of his or her 29 former spouse or in place of his or her former spouse's relative and 30 whether or not the divorced person then had the capacity to exercise 31 the power.

32 Sec. 4. Chapter 132 of NRS is hereby amended by adding 33 thereto the provisions set forth as sections 5 to 9, inclusive, of this 34 act.

35 Sec. 5. "Domestic partners" has the meaning ascribed to it in 36 NRS 122A.030.

37 Sec. 6. "Foreign jurisdiction" means any jurisdiction other 38 than this State.

39 Sec. 7. "Spouse" includes a domestic partner.

45 nonjudicial settlement, if the person has or claims to have an

1 enforceable right or interest that may be materially affected by the 2 outcome of that proceeding, proposed action or nonjudicial 3 settlement. While living, a settlor or a testator shall be deemed to 4 have an enforceable right with respect to any trust or will that he 5 or she created. For the purposes of this paragraph, a person may 6 not claim to have a right or interest under an estate or trust after 7 the entry of an order of the court declaring the right or interest 8 invalid.

9 (b) An estate of a decedent, if the person:

10 (1) Is an heir, devisee, child, spouse, creditor, settlor or 16 as a result of the payment of benefits for Medicaid;

17 (3) Has priority for appointment as a personal 18 representative; or

19 (4) Is any other fiduciary representing an interested person.

20 (c) A trust, if the person:

21 (1) Is a living settlor or, if a court has appointed a guardian 22 of the estate of the settlor, the guardian of the estate appointed by 23 the court;

33 current beneficiary or a remainder beneficiary of that trust;

34 (7) Holds a presently exercisable power that permits the 35 holder to designate, remove or otherwise change the designation 36 of a person who, pursuant to this paragraph, would be an 37 interested person;

38 (8) Is a creditor of the settlor who has a claim which has 39 been accepted by the trustee or who has asserted the trustee's 40 liability therefor in a probate proceeding or in a civil action under 41 subsection 8 or 9 of NRS 111.779; or

42 (9) Is a creditor of the trust who has given the trustee 43 written notice of its claim.

44 (d) A revocable trust that is the subject of a petition under NRS 45 164.015 relating to the validity of the trust or any trust-related

1 document, if the person, after the death of the settlor, under the 2 terms of any version of the trust documents in dispute, would be:

3 (1) A current beneficiary or a remainder beneficiary of that 4 trust; or

5 (2) A trustee or a successor trustee, including, without 6 limitation, a cotrustee.

7 (e) A will that, while the testator is still living, is the subject of 8 a petition under subsection 2 of NRS 30.040, if the person, after 9 the death of the testator, would be:

10 (1) A beneficiary of that will; or

11 (2) A fiduciary designated in or pursuant to the terms of 12 that will.

13 2. For the purposes of this title, the following persons are not 14 interested persons:

15 (a) With respect to a motion, petition or proceeding, any 16 person holding or claiming an interest or right that is not affected 17 by the motion, petition or proceeding.

18 (b) The Director of the Department of Health and Human 19 Services after any money owed to the Department has been paid in 20 full or with respect to the estate or trust of a decedent who did not 21 receive any benefits from Medicaid.

22 (c) A vexatious litigant with regard to a motion, petition or 23 proceeding for which the vexatious litigant has been denied 24 standing pursuant to NRS 155.165.

25 (d) As to the estate of a decedent:

26 (1) After a will has been admitted to probate, an heir, child 27 or spouse who is not a beneficiary of the will, except for the 10 withdrawal which is held by a beneficiary of the original trust and 11 may be executed at the time of the proposed appointment, unless 16 the original trust is no longer allocated for that beneficiary under 17 either or both trusts, unless the beneficiary consents in writing.

42 would have vested under the terms of the original trust.

43 ~~3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1, a]~~

1 4. A trustee who is a beneficiary of the original trust may not

29 authority to appoint property of the original trust to a second trust

31 would have the effect of increasing the distributions that can be 32 made from the second trust to such beneficiary or group of 33 beneficiaries that held the power to remove the trustee of the 34 original trust and replace such trustee with a related or 35 subordinate person, unless the distributions that may be made 36 from the second trust to such beneficiary or group of beneficiaries 37 described in paragraph (a) of subsection 4 are limited by an 38 ascertainable standard.

39 6. The provisions of ~~subsection 3~~ subsections 4 and 5 do not 40 prohibit a trustee who is not a beneficiary of the original trust from 41 exercising the authority to appoint property of the original trust to a 42 second trust pursuant to the provisions of subsection 1 ~~†~~

43 ~~—5.~~ if the trustee:

44 (a) Is not a beneficiary; or

8 petition for a court's approval must include the trustee's opinion of 9 how the appointment of property will affect the trustee's 10 compensation and the administration of other trust expenses.

11 ~~6.~~ 8. The trust instrument of the second trust may:

12 (a) Grant a general or limited power of appointment to one or 13 more of the beneficiaries of the second trust who are ~~proper objects~~

25 pursuant to subsection 1 must be exercised by a writing, signed by 26 the trustee and filed with the records of the trust.

27 ~~8.~~ 10. The exercise of the power to invade principal of the 31 of the trustee's estate and the provisions of NRS 111.1031 apply to

34 of any trustee who has the power to appoint property which arises 35 under any other law.

36 ~~10.~~ 12. The provisions of this section do not impose upon a 37 trustee a duty to exercise the power to appoint property pursuant to 39 ~~11.~~ 13. The power to appoint property to another trust 40 pursuant to subsection 1 is not a power to amend the trust and a 41 trustee is not prohibited from appointing property to another trust

38 Sec. 64. NRS 164.015 is hereby amended to read as follows:

39 164.015 1. The court has exclusive jurisdiction of 40 proceedings initiated by the petition of an interested person 41 concerning the internal affairs of a nontestamentary trust, including 42 a revocable living trust while the settlor is still living if the court 43 determines that the settlor cannot adequately protect his or her own 44 interests or if the interested person shows that the settlor is 45 incompetent or susceptible to undue influence. Proceedings which 1 may be maintained under this section are those concerning the 2 administration and distribution of trusts, the declaration of rights

21 NRS 30.040.

22 4. In a proceeding pursuant to subsection 3, the competency of 23 the settlor to make the trust, the freedom of the settlor from duress, 24 menace, fraud or undue influence at the time of execution of the 25 will, the execution and attestation of the trust instrument, or any 26 other question affecting the validity of the trust is a question of fact 27 and must be tried by the court, subject to the provisions of 28 subsection 5.

29 5. A court may consolidate the cases if there is a contest of a 30 revocable nontestamentary trust and a contest relating to a will 31 executed on the same date. If a jury is demanded pursuant to NRS 32 137.020 for the contest of the will, the court may instruct the jury to 33 render an advisory opinion with respect to an issue of fact pursuant 34 to subsection 4 in the contest of the trust.

35 6. Upon the hearing, the court shall enter such order as it 36 deems appropriate. The order is final and conclusive as to all 37 matters determined and is binding in rem upon the trust estate and 38 upon the interests of all beneficiaries, vested or contingent, except 39 that appeal to the appellate court of competent jurisdiction pursuant 40 to the rules fixed by the Supreme Court pursuant to Section 4 of 41 Article 6 of the Nevada Constitution may be taken from the order 42 within 30 days after notice of its entry by filing notice of appeal 43 with the clerk of the district court. The appellant shall mail a copy of 44 the notice to each person who has appeared of record. If the

1 proceeding was brought pursuant to subsection 3, 4 or 5, the court
2 must also award costs pursuant to chapter 18 of NRS.

3 7. ~~1A~~ Except as otherwise ordered by the court, a proceeding 4 under this section does not result in continuing supervisory 5 proceedings ~~1-~~The, and the administration of the trust must 6 proceed expeditiously in a manner consistent with the terms of the 7 trust, without judicial intervention or the order, approval or other 8 action of any court, unless the jurisdiction of the court is invoked by 9 an interested person or exercised as provided by other law.

10 8. As used in this section, "nontestamentary trust" has the 11 meaning ascribed to it in section 37 of this act.

12 Sec. 65. NRS 164.025 is hereby amended to read as follows:

1 trustee shall, whether or not the trustee gives notice to other 2 creditors, give notice within 30 days after the death to the 3 Department of Health and Human Services in the manner provided

41 the currently acting trustees.

42 Sec. 67. NRS 164.725 is hereby amended to read as follows:

43 164.725 1. As used in this section, “action” includes a course 44 of action and a decision on whether or not to take action.

1 2. A trustee may provide a notice of proposed action regarding 2 any matter governed by NRS 163.556 or 164.700 to 164.925, 3 inclusive. Except as otherwise provided in the trust instrument, a 4 trustee, trust protector or trust adviser may provide a notice of 5 proposed action regarding any aspect of the trust administration 6 of the trust within his or her scope of authority.

7 3. If a trustee, trust protector or trust adviser provides a notice 8 of proposed action, the trustee, trust protector or trust adviser shall 9 mail the notice of proposed action to every adult beneficiary who, at 10 the time the notice is provided, receives, or is entitled to receive, 11 income under the trust or who would be entitled to receive a 12 distribution of principal if the trust were terminated. A notice of 13 proposed action need not be provided to a person who consents in 14 writing to the proposed action. A consent to a proposed action may 15 be executed before or after the proposed action is taken.

16 4. The notice of proposed action must state:

28 or is to be effective.

29 5. A beneficiary may object to the proposed action by mailing 30 a written objection to the ~~trustee~~ person providing notice of the 31 proposed action at the address and within the time stated in the 32 notice.

33 6. If no beneficiary entitled to receive notice of a proposed 34 action objects to the proposed action and the other requirements of 35 this section are met, the trustee is not liable to any present or future 36 beneficiary with respect to that proposed action.

37 7. If the trustee, trust protector or trust adviser received a 38 written objection to the proposed action within the period specified 39 in the notice, the trustee, trust protector or trust adviser or a 40 beneficiary may petition the court for an order to take the action as 41 proposed, take the action with modification or deny the proposed

43 not estopped from opposing the proposed action. The burden is on a 44 beneficiary to prove that the proposed action should not be taken or 45 should be modified. If the trustee, trust protector or trust adviser

1 takes the proposed action as approved by the court, the trustee , trust

14 adjustment to principal and income pursuant to NRS 164.795 or 15 164.796, the sole remedy a court may order, pursuant to subsections 16 7 and 8, is to make the adjustment, to make the adjustment with a 17 modification or to order the adjustment not to be made.

33 authority to distribute the community property unless the trust 34 instrument expressly provides otherwise. The trustee may distribute 35 the community property on a non-pro rata basis so long as the fair 36 market value of the distribution is, at the time of the distribution, the 37 same as if the distribution were made pro rata. The provisions of this 38 section do not affect the distribution of assets that are specifically 39 allocated in the trust instrument to be distributed in kind.

2 beneficiary. The waiver may be a limited waiver as to the form of 3 the account, of the right to seek a hearing on the account, or of 4 the right to receive notice of a hearing on the account. Such 5 waiver is applicable to the beneficiary and any other beneficiaries
6 who are represented by the waiving beneficiary pursuant to NRS
