renewal of the license or schedules an appointment with the	129
issuing authority or another authority authorized to renew the	130
license, the license is further automatically extended until the	131
renewal application is accepted and fully processed.	132

(2) If division (D)(1) of this section applies with 133 respect to a concealed handgun license, during the extension 134 period described in that division that is applicable to that 135 license, all of the following apply: 136

(a) The license shall be valid for all purposes under the 137 laws of this state and the person to whom the license was issued 138 shall be considered for all purposes under the laws of this 139 state to be the holder of a valid license to carry a concealed 140 handgun, and the license shall be valid for all purposes under 141 section 2923.128 of the Revised Code; 142

(b) The license remains subject to the operation of 143 section 2923.128 of the Revised Code during the extended period 144 of the license and at any other time; 145

(c) Except for the date of scheduled expiration, all other 146 conditions and restrictions otherwise applicable to the license 147 and the license holder continue to apply during the extended 148 period of the license and at any other time. 149

(E) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, 150 including sections 5502.30 and 5502.35 of the Revised Code: 151

(1) A person, group, or entity adversely affected by any 152
manner of law, ordinance, rule, regulation, resolution, 153 practice, or other action enacted or enforced in violation of 154 this section may file an action for damages, injunctive relief, 155 declaratory relief, or other appropriate redress in the court of 156 common pleas of the county in which the aggrieved person resides 157 or the group or entity is located, or in which the violation 158 occurred. 159

(2) In an action brought under authority of division (E) 160
(1) of this section: 161

(a) A person, group, or entity adversely affected by any 162
manner of law, ordinance, rule, regulation, resolution, 163 practice, or other action enacted or enforced by any state 164 agency, any political subdivision, any elected or appointed 165 official or employee of the state or of a political subdivision, 166 or any agent of the state or of any political subdivision, 167 board, commission, bureau, or other public body established by 168 law in conflict with this section may bring a civil action 169 against the state agency, political subdivision, elected or 170 appointed official or employee of the state or of the political 171 subdivision, or agent of the state or of the political 172 subdivision, board, commission, bureau, or other public body 173 seeking damages, declaratory relief, injunctive relief, or a 174 combination of those remedies. Any damages awarded shall be 175 awarded against, and paid by, the state, the agency, the 176 political subdivision, or the board, commission, bureau, or 177 other public body. In addition to any actual damages awarded 178 against the state, the agency, the political subdivision, or the 179 board, commission, bureau, or other public body and any other 180 relief provided with respect to such an action, the court shall 181 award reasonable expenses to any person, group, or entity that 182 brings the action, to be paid by the state, agency, political 183 subdivision, or board, commission, bureau, or other public body, 184 if either of the following applies: 185

(i) The person, group, or entity prevails in a challenge 186 to the law, ordinance, rule, regulation, resolution, practice, 187 or action as being in conflict with this section. 188

(ii) The law, ordinance, rule, regulation, resolution, 189 practice, or action or the manner of its enforcement is repealed 190 or rescinded after the civil action was filed but prior to a 191 final court determination of the action. 192

(b) In addition to any other remedy available at law or in equity, a person, group, or entity aggrieved by the seizure or confiscation, in violation of this section, of one or more items listed in division (C) (3) of this section may apply to the court of common pleas of the county in which the item or items were seized or confiscated for the immediate return of the item or items. Except as otherwise provided in division (E) (2) (a) of this section, upon receipt of the application and a determination by the court that the seizure or confiscation of the item or items was in violation of this section, the court shall order the immediate return of the item or items by the seizing or confiscating state agency, political subdivision, board, commission, bureau, or other public body and that entity's employed officials. If a court orders the return of the seized or confiscated item or items under this division and the item or items are not returned in accordance with the order, the aggrieved party may claim reasonable costs and attorney fees for the loss and, the cost of reclaiming the item or items, or the cost of any damages to the item or items.

(F) The provisions contained in the amendments to section 3761.16 of the Revised Code and the enactment of this section by _____ B. _____ of the 134th general assembly are severable, as provided in section 1.50 of the Revised Code. In particular, it is the intent of the general assembly that any invalidity or potential invalidity of a provision contained in those amendments or this section is not to impair the immediate and continuing enforceability of the remaining provisions.

Section 2. That existing section 3761.16 of the Revised Code is hereby repealed.
