13 store, holder of an event permit, place of worship, or business 14 entity shall be permitted to establish any policy or rule that has 15 the effect of prohibiting prohibits any person, except a convicted 16 felon, from transporting and storing firearms in a locked motor 17 vehicle on any property set aside for any motor vehicle or from 18 transporting, carrying, or storing firearms or ammunition in a motor 19 vehicle owned, leased, or rented by the person or employee while 20 conducting business for the business entity.

21 2. An individual may bring a civil action to enforce the 22 provisions of paragraph 1 of this subsection. If a plaintiff
23 prevails in a civil action against a person, property owner, tenant, 24 employer, liquor store, place of worship, or business entity for a

1 policy or rule that violates paragraph 1 of this subsection, the 2 court shall award actual damages, enjoin further violations of 3 paragraph 1 of this subsection, and award court costs and attorney
4 fees to the prevailing plaintiff. The provisions of this subsection
5 shall not apply to claims pursuant to the Administrative Workers'
6 Compensation Act.

7 C. A property owner, tenant, employer, liquor store, place of 8 worship, or business entity may prohibit any person from carrying a 9 concealed or unconcealed firearm on the property. If the building
10 or property is open to the public, the property owner, tenant, 11 employer, liquor store, place of worship, or business entity shall 12 post signs on or about the property stating such prohibition.

13 D. No person, property owner, tenant, employer, liquor store,
14 holder of an event permit, place of worship, or business entity 15 shall be permitted to establish any policy or rule that has the 16 effect of prohibiting any person from carrying a concealed or 17 unconcealed firearm on property within the specific exclusion
18 provided for in paragraph 4 of subsection B of Section 1277 of this 19 title; provided that carrying a concealed or unconcealed firearm may 20 be prohibited in the following places:
