A BILL FOR AN ACT

1
2 Relating to child support; creating new provisions; amending ORS 25.080, 25.164, 107.105, 107.135, 3 107.485, 108.045, 108.110, 109.072, 109.124, 109.155, 109.165, 416.400, 416.415, 419B.400 and 4 419C.590; and repealing ORS 107.108.

5 Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

6 SECTION 1. ORS 107.108 is repealed.

7 SECTION 2. ORS 107.105 is amended to read:

8 107.105. (1) Whenever the court renders a judgment of marital annulment, dissolution or sepa-
9 ration, the court may provide in the judgment:

10 (a) For the future care and custody, by one party or jointly, of all minor children of the parties 11 born, adopted or conceived during the marriage and for minor children born to the parties prior to 12 the marriage, as the court may deem just and proper under ORS 107.137. The court may hold a 13 hearing to decide the custody issue prior to any other issues. When appropriate, the court shall 14 recognize the value of close contact with both parents and encourage joint parental custody and 15 joint responsibility for the welfare of the children.

16 (b) For parenting time rights of the parent not having custody of such children and for visitation
17 rights pursuant to a petition filed under ORS 109.119. When a parenting plan has been developed
18 as required by ORS 107.102, the court shall review the parenting plan and, if approved, incorporate 19 the parenting plan into the court's final order. When incorporated into a final order, the parenting
20 plan is determinative of parenting time rights. If the parents have been unable to develop a par-21 enting plan or if either of the parents requests the court to develop a detailed parenting plan, the 22 court shall develop the parenting plan in the best interest of the child, ensuring the noncustodial 23 parent sufficient access to the child to provide for appropriate quality parenting time and ensuring 24 the safety of the parties, if implicated. The court shall deny parenting time to a parent under this 25 paragraph if the court finds that the parent has been convicted of rape under ORS 163.365 or 163.375
26 or other comparable law of another jurisdiction and the rape resulted in the conception of the child.
27 Otherwise, the court may deny parenting time to the noncustodial parent under this subsection only 28 if the court finds that parenting time would endanger the health or safety of the child. In the case
29 of a noncustodial parent who has a disability as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 30 1990 (42 U.S.C. 12101 et seq.), the court may consider the noncustodial parent's disability in deter-

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

1 mining parenting time only if the court finds that behaviors or limitations related to the noncusto-
 2 dial parent's disability are endangering or will likely endanger the health, safety or welfare of the 3 child. The court shall recognize the value of close contact with both parents and encourage, when 4 practicable, joint responsibility for the welfare of such children and extensive contact between the 5 minor children of the divided marriage and the parties. If the court awards parenting time to a 6 noncustodial parent who has committed abuse, other than being convicted for rape as described in 7 this paragraph, the court shall make adequate provision for the safety of the child and the other 8 parent in accordance with the provisions of ORS 107.718 (6).

9 (c) For the support of [the children] a child of the marriage [by the parties] who is under 18
 10 years of age or, if the child is still in high school, 19 years of age or less. In ordering child
 11 support, the formula established under ORS 25.275 shall apply. The court may at any time require 12 an accounting from the custodial parent with reference to the use of the money received as child
 13 support. The court is not required to order support for any minor child who has become self-14 supporting, emancipated or married [or for any child who has ceased to attend school after becoming 15 18 years of age]. A general judgment entered under this section may include an amount for support
 16 as requested in a petition filed under ORS 107.085 or under a motion for relief made pursuant to 17 ORS 107.095 (1)(b) for which a limited judgment was not entered, payment of which commences no
 18 earlier than the date the petition or motion was served on the nonrequesting party, and the amount
 19 shall be considered a request for relief that has been decided by the general judgment for purposes
 20 of ORS 18.082 (3).

21 (d) For spousal support, an amount of money for a period of time as may be just and equitable 22 for one party to contribute to the other, in gross or in installments or both. Unless otherwise ex-
 23 pressly provided in the judgment and except for any unpaid balance of previously ordered spousal
 24 support, liability for the payment of spousal support shall terminate on the death of either party,
 25 and there shall be no liability for either the payment of spousal support or for any payment in cash
 26 or property as a substitute for the payment of spousal support after the death of either party. The 27 court may approve an agreement for the entry of an order for the support of a party. A general
 28 judgment entered under this section may include an amount for support as requested in a petition
 29 filed under ORS 107.085 or under a motion for relief made pursuant to ORS 107.095 (1)(b) for which
 30 a limited judgment was not entered, payment of which commences no earlier than the date the pe-
 31 tition or motion was served on the nonrequesting party, and the amount shall be considered a re-
 32 quest for relief that has been decided by the general judgment for purposes of ORS 18.082 (3). In 33 making the spousal support order, the court shall designate one or more categories of spousal sup-
 34 port and shall make findings of the relevant factors in the decision. The court may order:

35 (A) Transitional spousal support as needed for a party to attain education and training neces-
 36 sary to allow the party to prepare for reentry into the job market or for advancement therein. The 37 factors to be considered by the court in awarding transitional spousal support include but are not 38 limited to:

- 39 (i) The duration of the marriage;
- 40 (ii) A party's training and employment skills;
- 41 (iii) A party's work experience;
- 42 (iv) The financial needs and resources of each party;
- 43 (v) The tax consequences to each party;
- 44 (vi) A party's custodial and child support responsibilities; and
- 45 (vii) Any other factors the court deems just and equitable.

1 (B) Compensatory spousal support when there has been a significant financial or other contri-
 2 bution by one party to the education, training, vocational skills, career or earning capacity of the 3 other party and when an order for compensatory spousal support is otherwise just and equitable in 4 all of the circumstances. The factors to be considered by the court in awarding compensatory 5 spousal support include but are not limited to:

- 6 (i) The amount, duration and nature of the contribution;
- 7 (ii) The duration of the marriage;
- 8 (iii) The relative earning capacity of the parties;
- 9 (iv) The extent to which the marital estate has already benefited from the contribution;
- 10 (v) The tax consequences to each party; and
- 11 (vi) Any other factors the court deems just and equitable.

12 (C) Spousal maintenance as a contribution by one spouse to the support of the other for either
 13 a specified or an indefinite period. The factors to be considered by the court in awarding spousal 14 maintenance include but are not limited to:

- 15 (i) The duration of the marriage;
- 16 (ii) The age of the parties;
- 17 (iii) The health of the parties, including their physical, mental and emotional condition;
- 18 (iv) The standard of living established during the marriage;
- 19 (v) The relative income and earning capacity of the parties, recognizing that the wage earner's
 20 continuing income may be a basis for support distinct from the income that the supported spouse 21 may receive from the distribution of marital property;
- 22 (vi) A party's training and employment skills;
- 23 (vii) A party's work experience;
- 24 (viii) The financial needs and resources of each party;
- 25 (ix) The tax consequences to each party;
- 26 (x) A party's custodial and child support responsibilities; and
- 27 (xi) Any other factors the court deems just and equitable.

28 (e) For the delivery to one party of such party's personal property in the possession or control
 29 of the other at the time of the giving of the judgment.

30 (f) For the division or other disposition between the parties of the real or personal property, or 31 both, of either or both of the parties as may be just and proper in all the circumstances. In deter-
 32 mining the division of property under this paragraph, the following apply:

33 (A) A retirement plan or pension or an interest therein shall be considered as property.

34 (B) The court shall consider the contribution of a party as a homemaker as a contribution to 35 the acquisition of marital assets.

36 (C) Except as provided in subparagraph (D) of this paragraph, there is a rebuttable presumption
 37 that both parties have contributed equally to the acquisition of property during the marriage, 38 whether such property is jointly or separately held.

39 (D)(i) Property acquired by gift to one party during the marriage and separately held by that 40 party on a continuing basis from the time of receipt is not subject to a presumption of equal con-
 41 tribution under subparagraph (C) of this paragraph.

42 (ii) For purposes of this subparagraph, "property acquired by gift" means property acquired by 43 one party through gift, devise, bequest, operation of law, beneficiary designation or inheritance.

44 (E) Subsequent to the filing of a petition for annulment or dissolution of marriage or separation,
 45 the rights of the parties in the marital assets shall be considered a species of co-ownership, and a

1 transfer of marital assets under a judgment of annulment or dissolution of marriage or of separation
 2 entered on or after October 4, 1977, shall be considered a partitioning of jointly owned property.

3 (F) The court shall require full disclosure of all assets by the parties in arriving at a just 4 property division.

5 (G) In arriving at a just and proper division of property, the court shall consider reasonable 6 costs of sale of assets, taxes and any other costs reasonably anticipated by the parties.

7 (H)(i) If a party has been awarded spousal support in lieu of a share of property, the court shall 8 so state on the record and shall order the obligor to provide for and maintain life insurance in an 9 amount commensurate with the obligation and designating the obligee as beneficiary for the dura-
 10 tion of the obligation.

11 (ii) The obligee or attorney of the obligee shall cause a certified copy of the judgment to be 12 delivered to the life insurance company or companies.

13 (iii) If the obligee or the attorney of the obligee delivers a true copy of the judgment to the life
 14 insurance company or companies, identifying the policies involved and requesting such notification
 15 under this section, the company or companies shall notify the obligee, as beneficiary of the insur-
 16 ance policy, whenever the policyholder takes any action that will change the beneficiary or reduce 17 the benefits of the policy. Either party may request notification by the insurer when premium pay-
 18 ments have not been made. If the obligor is ordered to provide for and maintain life insurance, the 19 obligor shall provide to the obligee a true copy of the policy. The obligor shall also provide to the 20 obligee written notice of any action that will reduce the benefits or change the designation of the 21 beneficiaries under the policy.

22 (g) For the creation of trusts as follows:

23 (A) For the appointment of one or more trustees to hold, control and manage for the benefit of 24 the children of the parties, of the marriage or otherwise such of the real or personal property of 25 either or both of the parties, as the court may order to be allocated or appropriated to their support 26 and welfare, and to collect, receive, expend, manage or invest any sum of money awarded for the 27 support and welfare of minor children of the parties.

28 (B) For the appointment of one or more trustees to hold, manage and control such amount of 29 money or such real or personal property of either or both of the parties, as may be set aside, allo-
 30 cated or appropriated for the support of a party.

31 (C) For the establishment of the terms of the trust and provisions for the disposition or distrib-
 32 ution of such money or property to or between the parties, their successors, heirs and assigns after 33 the purpose of the trust has been accomplished. Upon petition of a party or a person having an in-34 terest in the trust showing a change of circumstances warranting a change in the terms of the trust, 35 the court may make and direct reasonable modifications in its terms.

36 (h) To change the name of either spouse to a name the spouse held before the marriage. The 37 court shall order a change if it is requested by the affected party.

38 (i) For a money award for any sums of money found to be then remaining unpaid upon any order
 39 or limited judgment entered under ORS 107.095. If a limited judgment was entered under ORS 40 107.095, the limited judgment shall continue to be enforceable for any amounts not paid under the 41 limited judgment unless those amounts are included in the money award made by the general judg-
 42 ment.

43 (j) For an award of reasonable attorney fees and costs and expenses reasonably incurred in the 44 action in favor of a party or in favor of a party's attorney.

45 (2) In determining the proper amount of support and the proper division of property under sub-

1 section (1)(c), (d) and (f) of this section, the court may consider evidence of the tax consequences
2 on the parties of its proposed judgment.

3 (3) Upon the filing of the judgment, the property division ordered shall be deemed effective for 4 all purposes. This transfer by judgment, which shall affect solely owned property transferred to the 5 other spouse as well as commonly owned property in the same manner as would a declaration of a
6 resulting trust in favor of the spouse to whom the property is awarded, is not a taxable sale or ex-
7 change.

8 (4) If an appeal is taken from a judgment of annulment or dissolution of marriage or of separa-9 tion or from any part of a judgment rendered in pursuance of the provisions of this section and 10 ORS 107.005 to 107.086, 107.095, [107.105,] 107.115 to 107.174, 107.405, 107.425, 107.445 to 107.520, 11 107.540 and 107.610, the court rendering the judgment may provide in a supplemental judgment for 12 any relief provided for in ORS 107.095 and shall provide that the relief granted in the judgment is 13 to be in effect only during the pendency of the appeal. A supplemental judgment under this sub-
14 section may be enforced as provided in ORS 33.015 to 33.155 and ORS chapter 18. A supplemental 15 judgment under this subsection may be appealed in the same manner as provided for supplemental 16 judgments modifying a domestic relations judgment under ORS 19.275.

17 (5) If an appeal is taken from the judgment or other appealable order in a suit for annulment
18 or dissolution of a marriage or for separation and the appellate court awards costs and disburse-
19 ments to a party, the court may also award to that party, as part of the costs, such additional sum 20 of money as it may adjudge reasonable as an attorney fee on the appeal.

21 (6) If, as a result of a suit for the annulment or dissolution of a marriage or for separation, the 22 parties to such suit become owners of an undivided interest in any real or personal property, or 23 both, either party may maintain supplemental proceedings by filing a petition in such suit for the 24 partition of such real or personal property, or both, within two years from the entry of the judgment, 25 showing among other things that the original parties to the judgment and their joint or several 26 creditors having a lien upon any such real or personal property, if any there be, constitute the sole 27 and only necessary parties to such supplemental proceedings. The procedure in the supplemental 28 proceedings, so far as applicable, shall be the procedure provided in ORS 105.405 for the partition 29 of real property, and the court granting the judgment shall have in the first instance and retain 30 jurisdiction in equity therefor.

31 SECTION 3. ORS 107.135 is amended to read:

32 107.135. (1) The court may at any time after a judgment of annulment or dissolution of marriage
33 or of separation is granted, upon the motion of either party and after service of notice on the other 34 party in the manner provided by ORCP 7, and after notice to the Division of Child Support when 35 required under subsection (9) of this section:

36 (a) Set aside, alter or modify any portion of the judgment that provides for the appointment and 37 duties of trustees, for the custody, parenting time, visitation, support and welfare of the minor
38 children and the children [attending school, as defined in ORS 107.108] who are 19 years of age
39 or less and attending high school, including any health or life insurance provisions, for the sup-
40 port of a party or for life insurance under ORS 107.820 or 107.830;

41 (b) Make an order, after service of notice to the other party, providing for the future custody,
42 support and welfare of minor children residing in the state, who, at the time the judgment was given,
43 were not residents of the state, or were unknown to the court or were erroneously omitted from the 44 judgment;

45 (c) Terminate a duty of support toward any minor child who has become self-supporting,

1 emancipated or married; and

2 [(d) After service of notice on the child in the manner provided by law for service of a summons,
3 suspend future support for any child who has ceased to be a child attending school as defined in ORS
4 107.108; and]

5 [(e)] (d) Set aside, alter or modify any portion of the judgment that provides for a property
6 award based on the enhanced earning capacity of a party that was awarded before October 23, 1999.
7 A property award may be set aside, altered or modified under this paragraph:

8 (A) When the person with the enhanced earning capacity makes a good faith career change that 9 results in less income;

10 (B) When the income of the person with the enhanced earning capacity decreases due to cir-11 cumstances beyond the person's control; or

12 (C) Under such other circumstances as the court deems just and proper.

13 (2) When a party moves to set aside, alter or modify the child support provisions of the judg-
14 ment:

15 (a) The party shall state in the motion, to the extent known:

16 (A) Whether there is pending in this state or any other jurisdiction any type of support pro-
17 ceeding involving children of the marriage, including one brought under ORS 25.287, 107.431,
18 109.100, 125.025, 416.400 to 416.465, 419B.400 or 419C.590 or ORS chapter 110; and

19 (B) Whether there exists in this state or any other jurisdiction a support order, as defined in 20 ORS 110.303, involving children of the marriage, other than the judgment the party is moving to set 21 aside, alter or modify.

22 (b) The party shall include with the motion a certificate regarding any pending support pro-
23 ceeding and any existing support order other than the judgment the party is moving to set aside,
24 alter or modify. The party shall use a certificate that is in a form established by court rule and in-
25 clude information required by court rule and paragraph (a) of this subsection.

26 (3) In a proceeding under this section to reconsider the spousal or child support provisions of 27 the judgment, the following provisions apply:

28 (a) A substantial change in economic circumstances of a party, which may include, but is not 29 limited to, a substantial change in the cost of reasonable and necessary expenses to either party, is 30 sufficient for the court to reconsider its order of support, except that an order of compensatory
31 spousal support may only be modified upon a showing of an involuntary, extraordinary and unan-
32 ticipated change in circumstances that reduces the earning capacity of the paying spouse.

33 (b) If the judgment provided for a termination or reduction of spousal support at a designated 34 age in anticipation of the commencement of pension, Social Security or other entitlement payments,
35 and if the obligee is unable to obtain the anticipated entitlement payments, that inability is suffi-
36 cient change in circumstances for the court to reconsider its order of support.

37 (c) If Social Security is considered in lieu of spousal support or partial spousal support, the 38 court shall determine the amount of Social Security the party is eligible to collect. The court shall 39 take into consideration any pension, retirement or other funds available to either party to effect an 40 equitable distribution between the parties and shall also take into consideration any reduction of 41 entitlement caused by taking early retirement.

42 (4) In considering under this section whether a change in circumstances exists sufficient for the 43 court to reconsider spousal or child support provisions of a judgment, the following provisions apply:

44 (a) The court or administrator, as defined in ORS 25.010, shall consider income opportunities and 45 benefits of the respective parties from all sources, including but not limited to:

1 (A) The reasonable opportunity of each party, the obligor and obligee respectively, to acquire 2 future income and assets.

3 (B) Retirement benefits available to the obligor and to the obligee.

4 (C) Other benefits to which the obligor is entitled, such as travel benefits, recreational benefits
 5 and medical benefits, contrasted with benefits to which the obligee is similarly entitled.

6 (D) Social Security benefits paid to a child, or to a representative payee administering the funds
 7 for the child's use and benefit, as a result of the obligor's disability or retirement if the benefits:

8 (i) Were not previously considered in the child support order; or

9 (ii) Were considered in an action initiated before May 12, 2003.

10 (E) Apportioned Veterans' benefits or Survivors' and Dependents' Educational Assistance under 11 38 U.S.C. chapter 35 paid to a child, or to a representative payee administering the funds for the 12 child's use and benefit, as a result of the obligor's disability or retirement if the benefits:

13 (i) Were not previously considered in the child support order; or 14 (ii) Were considered in an action initiated before May 12, 2003.

15 (b) If the motion for modification is one made by the obligor to reduce or terminate support, and 16 if the obligee opposes the motion, the court shall not find a change in circumstances sufficient for 17 reconsideration of support provisions, if the motion is based upon a reduction of the obligor's fi-
 18 nancial status resulting from the obligor's taking voluntary retirement, partial voluntary retirement 19 or any other voluntary reduction of income or self-imposed curtailment of earning capacity, if it is 20 shown that such action of the obligor was not taken in good faith but was for the primary purpose
 21 of avoiding the support obligation. In any subsequent motion for modification, the court shall deny 22 the motion if the sole basis of the motion for modification is the termination of voluntarily taken 23 retirement benefits and the obligor previously has been found not to have acted in good faith.

24 (c) The court shall consider the following factors in deciding whether the actions of the obligor
 25 were not in "good faith":

26 (A) Timing of the voluntary retirement or other reduction in financial status to coincide with 27 court action in which the obligee seeks or is granted an increase in spousal support.

28 (B) Whether all or most of the income producing assets and property were awarded to the 29 obligor, and spousal support in lieu of such property was awarded to the obligee.

30 (C) Extent of the obligor's dissipation of funds and assets prior to the voluntary retirement or 31 soon after filing for the change of circumstances based on retirement.

32 (D) If earned income is reduced and absent dissipation of funds or large gifts, whether the 33 obligor has funds and assets from which the spousal support could have been paid.

34 (E) Whether the obligor has given gifts of substantial value to others, including a current 35 spouse, to the detriment of the obligor's ability to meet the preexisting obligation of spousal support.

36 (5) Upon terminating a duty of spousal support, a court shall make specific findings of the basis
 37 for the termination and shall include the findings in the judgment.

38 (6) Any modification of child or spousal support granted because of a change of circumstances 39 may be ordered effective retroactive to the date the motion for modification was served or to any 40 date thereafter.

41 (7) The judgment is final as to any installment or payment of money that has accrued up to the 42 time the nonmoving party, other than the state, is served with a motion to set aside, alter or modify 43 the judgment. The court may not set aside, alter or modify any portion of the judgment that provides 44 for any payment of money, either for minor children or for the support of a party, that has accrued
 45 before the motion is served. However:

1 (a) The court may allow a credit against child support arrearages for periods of time, excluding
2 reasonable parenting time unless otherwise provided by order or judgment, during which the obligor,
3 with the knowledge and consent of the obligee or pursuant to court order, has physical custody of 4 the child; and

5 (b) The court may allow, as provided in the rules of the Child Support Program, a dollar-for-
6 dollar credit against child support arrearages for any Social Security or Veterans' benefits paid
7 retroactively to the child, or to a representative payee administering the funds for the child's use
8 and benefit, as a result of an obligor's disability or retirement.

9 (8) In a proceeding under subsection (1) of this section, the court may assess against either party
10 a reasonable attorney fee and costs for the benefit of the other party. If a party is found to have 11 acted in bad faith, the court shall order that party to pay a reasonable attorney fee and costs of the 12 defending party.

13 (9) Whenever a motion to establish, modify or terminate child support or satisfy or alter support 14 arrearages is filed and the child support rights of one of the parties or of a child of both of the 15 parties have been assigned to the state, a true copy of the motion shall be served by mail or per-
16 sonal delivery on the Administrator of the Division of Child Support of the Department of Justice
17 or on the branch office providing support services to the county in which the motion is filed.

18 (10)(a) Except as provided in ORS 109.701 to 109.834, the courts of Oregon, having once acquired 19 personal and subject matter jurisdiction in a domestic relations action, retain such jurisdiction re-20 gardless of any change of domicile.

21 (b) The courts of Oregon, in a proceeding to establish, enforce or modify a child support order,
22 shall recognize the provisions of the federal Full Faith and Credit for Child Support Orders Act (28 23 U.S.C. 1738B).

24 (11) In a proceeding under this section to reconsider provisions in a judgment relating to cus-
25 tody or parenting time, the court may consider repeated and unreasonable denial of, or interference 26 with, parenting time to be a substantial change of circumstances.

27 (12) In a proceeding under this section to reconsider provisions in a judgment relating to par-
28 enting time, the court may suspend or terminate a parent's parenting time with a child if the court 29 finds that the parent has abused a controlled substance and that the parenting time is not in the 30 best interests of the child. If a court has suspended or terminated a parent's parenting time with 31 a child for reasons described in this subsection, the court may not grant the parent future parenting 32 time until the parent has shown that the reasons for the suspension or termination are resolved and 33 that reinstated parenting time is in the best interests of the child. Nothing in this subsection limits 34 the court's authority under subsection (1)(a) of this section.

35 (13) In a proceeding under this section to reconsider provisions in a judgment relating to cus-
36 tody, temporary placement of the child by the custodial parent pursuant to ORS 109.056 (3) with the 37 noncustodial parent as a result of military deployment of the custodial parent is not, by itself, a 38 change of circumstances. Any fact relating to the child and the parties occurring subsequent to the 39 last custody judgment, other than the custodial parent's temporary placement of the child pursuant 40 to ORS 109.056 (3) with the noncustodial parent, may be considered by the court when making a 41 change of circumstances determination.

42 (14) Within 30 days after service of notice under subsection (1) of this section, the party served 43 shall file a written response with the court.

44 (15)(a) It is the policy of this state:

45 (A) To encourage the settlement of cases brought under this section; and

1 (B) For courts to enforce the terms of settlements described in paragraph (b) of this subsection
 2 to the fullest extent possible, except when to do so would violate the law or would clearly
 3 contravene public policy.

4 (b) In a proceeding under subsection (1) of this section, the court may enforce the terms set
 5 forth in a stipulated order or judgment signed by the parties, an order or judgment resulting from
 6 a settlement on the record or an order or judgment incorporating a settlement agreement:

7 (A) As contract terms using contract remedies;

8 (B) By imposing any remedy available to enforce an order or judgment, including but not limited
 9 to contempt; or

10 (C) By any combination of the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph.

11 (c) A party may seek to enforce an agreement and obtain remedies described in paragraph (b)
 12 of this subsection by filing a motion, serving notice on the other party in the manner provided by 13 ORCP 7 and, if a remedy under paragraph (b)(B) of this subsection is sought, complying with the 14 statutory requirements for that remedy. All claims for relief arising out of the same acts or omis-
 15 sions must be joined in the same proceeding.

16 (d) Nothing in paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection limits a party's ability, in a separate pro-
 17 ceeding, to file a motion to modify an order or judgment under subsection (1) of this section or to 18 seek enforcement of an ancillary agreement to the order or judgment.

19 SECTION 4. ORS 107.485 is amended to read:

20 107.485. A marriage may be dissolved by the summary dissolution procedure specified in this 21 section and ORS 107.490 when all of the following conditions exist at the time the proceeding is

24 (2)(a) There are no minor children, or children 19 years of age or less attending high school,
 25 born to the parties or adopted by the parties during the marriage;

26 [(b) There are no children over age 18 attending school, as described in ORS 107.108, either born
 27 to the parties or adopted by the parties during the marriage;]

28 [(c)] (b) There are no minor children born to or adopted by the parties prior to the marriage;
 29 and

30 [(d)] (c) The wife is not now pregnant.

31 (3) The marriage is not more than 10 years in duration.

32 (4) Neither party has any interest in real property wherever situated.

 34 from the date of the marriage.

35 (6) The total aggregate fair market value of personal property assets in which either of the 36 parties has any interest, excluding all encumbrances, is less than $30,000.

37 (7) The petitioner waives any right to spousal support.

38 (8) The petitioner waives any rights to pendente lite orders except those pursuant to ORS 39 107.700 to 107.735 or 124.005 to 124.040.

40 (9) The petitioner knows of no other pending domestic relations suits involving the marriage in 41 this or any other state.

42 SECTION 5. ORS 108.045 is amended to read:

43 108.045. (1) The expenses of the family and the education of minor children, including 44 stepchildren, are chargeable upon the property of both husband and wife, or either of them. How-45 ever, with regard to stepchildren, the obligation shall cease upon entry of a judgment of dissolution.

1 (2) As used in this section, “stepchild” means a child under the age of 18[ or a child attending
 2 school as defined in ORS 107.108] who is in the custody of one biological or adoptive parent who is 3 married to and not legally separated from a person other than the second biological or adoptive
 4 parent of such child.

5 (3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the legal duty of a parent to provide support 6 for a child, as otherwise required by law, shall not be affected.

7 SECTION 6. ORS 108.110 is amended to read:

8 108.110. (1) Any married person may apply to the circuit court of the county in which the mar-
 9 ried person resides or in which the spouse may be found for an order upon the spouse to provide 10 for support of the married person or for the support of [minor children and children attending school,
 11 or both, and, if the married person initiating the action for support is a woman who is pregnant, her
 12 unborn child, or both, if her spouse is the natural father of such children, children attending school
 13 or unborn child or if her spouse is the adoptive father of such children or children attending school] 14 the married person’s unborn child, minor children and child 19 years of age or less who is 15 attending high school, if the married person’s spouse is the natural or adoptive father of the 16 unborn child, minor children or child 19 years of age or less who is attending high school.
 17 The married person initiating the action for support may apply for the order by filing in such county 18 a petition setting forth the facts and circumstances upon which the married person relies for such 19 order. If satisfied that a just cause exists, the court shall direct that the married person’s spouse 20 appear at a time set by the court to show cause why an order of support should not be entered in 21 the matter. [The provisions of ORS 107.108 apply to an order entered under this section for the support
 22 of a child attending school.]

23 [(2) As used in this section, “child attending school” has the meaning given that term in ORS
 24 107.108.]

25 [(3)] (2) The petitioner shall state in the petition, to the extent known:

26 (a) Whether there is pending in this state or any other jurisdiction any type of support pro-
 27 ceeding involving children of the marriage, including a proceeding brought under ORS 107.085,
 28 109.100, 125.025, 416.400 to 416.465, 419B.400 or 419C.590 or ORS chapter 110; and

29 (b) Whether there exists in this state or any other jurisdiction a support order, as defined in 30 ORS 110.303, involving children of the marriage.

31 [(4)] (3) The petitioner shall include with the petition a certificate regarding any pending sup-
 32 port proceeding and any existing support order. The petitioner shall use a certificate that is in a 33 form established by court rule and include information required by court rule and subsection [(3)] 34 (2) of this section.

35 [(5)] (4) The provisions of this section apply equally to cases where it is the husband making 36 application for a support order.

37 [(6)] (5) In any proceeding under this section, the obligee, as that person is defined in ORS 38 110.303, is a party to the proceeding.

39 SECTION 7. ORS 109.072 is amended to read:

40 109.072. (1) As used in this section:

41 (a) “Blood tests” has the meaning given that term in ORS 109.251.

42 (b) “Paternity judgment” means a judgment or administrative order that:

43 (A) Expressly or by inference determines the paternity of a child, or that imposes a child support 44 obligation based on the paternity of a child; and

45 (B) Resulted from a proceeding in which blood tests were not performed and the issue of 1 paternity was not challenged.

2 (c) "Petition" means a petition or motion filed under this section.

3 (d) "Petitioner" means the person filing a petition or motion under this section.

4 (2)(a) The following may file in circuit court a petition to vacate or set aside the paternity de-5 termination of a paternity judgment, including any child support obligations established in the 6 paternity judgment, and for a judgment of nonpaternity:

7 (A) A party to the paternity judgment.

8 (B) The Department of Human Services if the child is in the care and custody of the Department
9 of Human Services under ORS chapter 419B.

10 (C) The Division of Child Support of the Department of Justice if the child support rights of the 11 child or of one of the parties to the paternity judgment have been assigned to the state.

12 (b) The petitioner may file the petition in the circuit court proceeding in which the paternity
13 judgment was entered, in a related proceeding or in a separate action. The petitioner shall attach 14 a copy of the paternity judgment to the petition.

15 (c) If the ground for the petition is that the paternity determination was obtained by or was the 16 result of mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect, the petitioner may not file the petition 17 more than one year after entry of the paternity judgment.

18 (d) If the ground for the petition is that the paternity determination was obtained by or was the 19 result of fraud, misrepresentation or other misconduct of an adverse party, the petitioner may not 20 file the petition more than one year after the petitioner discovers the fraud, misrepresentation or 21 other misconduct.

22 (3) In the petition, the petitioner shall:

23 (a) Designate as parties:

24 (A) All persons who were parties to the paternity judgment;

25 [(B) The child if the child is a child attending school, as defined in ORS 107.108;]

26 [(C)] (B) The Department of Human Services if the child is in the care and custody of the De-27 partment of Human Services under ORS chapter 419B; and

28 [(D)] (C) The Administrator of the Division of Child Support of the Department of Justice if the 29 child support rights of the child or of one of the parties to the paternity judgment have been as-30 signed to the state.

31 (b) Provide the full name and date of birth of the child whose paternity was determined by the 32 paternity judgment.

33 (c) Allege the facts and circumstances that resulted in the entry of the paternity judgment and 34 explain why the issue of paternity was not contested.

35 (4) After filing a petition under this section, the petitioner shall serve a summons and a true
36 copy of the petition on all parties as provided in ORCP 7.

37 (5) The court, on its own motion or on the motion of a party, may appoint counsel for the child.
38 However, if requested to do so by the child, the court shall appoint counsel for the child. A rea-39 sonable fee for an attorney so appointed may be charged against one or more of the parties or as 40 a cost in the proceeding, but may not be charged against funds appropriated for public defense ser-41 vices.

42 (6) The court may order the mother, the child and the man whose paternity of the child was 43 determined by the paternity judgment to submit to blood tests. In deciding whether to order blood 44 tests, the court shall consider the interests of the parties and the child and, if it is just and equitable 45 to do so, may deny a request for blood tests. If the court orders blood tests under this subsection,

1 the court shall order the petitioner to pay the costs of the blood tests.

2 (7) Unless the court finds, giving consideration to the interests of the parties and the child, that
 3 to do so would be substantially inequitable, the court shall vacate or set aside the paternity deter-
 4 mination of the paternity judgment, including provisions imposing child support obligations, and 5 enter a judgment of nonpaternity if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that:

6 (a) The paternity determination was obtained by or was the result of:

7 (A) Mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect; or

8 (B) Fraud, misrepresentation or other misconduct of an adverse party;

9 (b) The mistake, inadvertence, surprise, excusable neglect, fraud, misrepresentation or other 10 misconduct was discovered by the petitioner after the entry of the paternity judgment; and 11 (c) Blood tests establish that the man is not the biological father of the child.

12 (8) If the court finds that the paternity determination of a paternity judgment was obtained by 13 or was the result of fraud, the court may vacate or set aside the paternity determination regardless 14 of whether the fraud was intrinsic or extrinsic.

15 (9) If the court finds, based on blood test evidence, that the man may be the biological father 16 of the child and that the cumulative paternity index based on the blood test evidence is 99 or 17 greater, the court shall deny the petition.

18 (10) The court may grant the relief authorized by this section upon a party's default, or by 19 consent or stipulation of the parties, without blood test evidence.

20 (11) A judgment entered under this section vacating or setting aside the paternity determination
 21 of a paternity judgment and determining nonpaternity:

22 (a) Shall contain the full name and date of birth of the child whose paternity was established 23 or declared by the paternity judgment.

24 (b) Shall vacate and terminate any ongoing and future child support obligations arising from or 25 based on the paternity judgment.

26 (c) May vacate or deem as satisfied, in whole or in part, unpaid child support obligations arising 27 from or based on the paternity judgment.

28 (d) May not order restitution from the state for any sums paid to or collected by the state for 29 the benefit of the child.

30 (12) If the court vacates or sets aside the paternity determination of a paternity judgment under 31 this section and enters a judgment of nonpaternity, the petitioner shall send a court-certified true
 32 copy of the judgment entered under this section to the State Registrar of the Center for Health
 33 Statistics and to the Department of Justice as the state disbursement unit. Upon receipt of the 34 court-certified true copy of the judgment entered under this section, the state registrar shall correct
 35 any records maintained by the state registrar that indicate that the male party to the paternity 36 judgment is the father of the child.

37 (13) The court may award to the prevailing party a judgment for reasonable attorney fees and 38 costs, including the cost of any blood tests ordered by the court and paid by the prevailing party.

39 (14) A judgment entered under this section vacating or setting aside the paternity determination
 40 of a paternity judgment and determining nonpaternity is not a bar to further proceedings to deter-
 41 mine paternity, as otherwise allowed by law.

42 (15) If a man whose paternity of a child has been determined by a paternity judgment has died, 43 an action under this section may not be initiated by or on behalf of the estate of the man.

44 (16) This section does not limit the authority of the court to vacate or set aside a judgment
 45 under ORCP 71, to modify a judgment within a reasonable period, to entertain an independent action

1 to relieve a party from a judgment, to vacate or set aside a judgment for fraud upon the court or 2 to render a declaratory judgment under ORS chapter 28.

3 (17) This section shall be liberally construed to the end of achieving substantial justice.

4 SECTION 8. ORS 109.124 is amended to read:

5 109.124. As used in ORS 109.124 to 109.230, unless the context requires otherwise:

6 [(1) “Child attending school” has the meaning given that term in ORS 107.108.]

7 [(2)] (1) “Child born out of wedlock” means a child born to an unmarried woman or to a married
8 woman by a man other than her husband.

9 [(3)] (2) “Respondent” may include, but is not limited to, one or more persons who may be the 10 father of a child born out of wedlock, the husband of a woman who has or may have a child born 11 out of wedlock, the mother of a child born out of wedlock, the woman pregnant with a child who 12 may be born out of wedlock, or the duly appointed and acting guardian of the child or conservator 13 of the child’s estate.

14 SECTION 9. ORS 109.155 is amended to read:

15 109.155. (1) The court, in a private hearing, shall first determine the issue of paternity. If the 16 respondent admits the paternity, the admission shall be reduced to writing, verified by the respond-
17 ent and filed with the court. If the paternity is denied, corroborating evidence, in addition to the 18 testimony of the parent or expectant parent, shall be required.

19 (2) If the court finds, from a preponderance of the evidence, that the petitioner or the respondent
20 is the father of the child who has been, or who may be born out of wedlock, the court shall then 21 proceed to a determination of the appropriate relief to be granted. The court may approve any 22 settlement agreement reached between the parties and incorporate the agreement into any judgment 23 rendered, and the court may order such investigation or the production of such evidence as the 24 court deems appropriate to establish a proper basis for relief.

25 (3) The court, in its discretion, may postpone the hearing from time to time to facilitate any 26 investigation or the production of such evidence as it deems appropriate.

27 (4) The court may order either parent to pay such sum as the court deems appropriate for the 28 past and future support and maintenance of the child during the child’s minority and while the child
29 is [attending school, as defined in ORS 107.108,] or was 19 years of age or less and attending high 30 school and the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with 31 [prenatal care, expenses attendant with the birth and postnatal care] the child’s birth, including but 32 not limited to prenatal and postnatal care. The court may grant the prevailing party reasonable 33 costs of suit, which may include expert witness fees, and reasonable attorney fees at trial and on 34 appeal. [The provisions of ORS 107.108 apply to an order entered under this section for the support
35 of a child attending school.]

36 (5) An affidavit certifying the authenticity of documents substantiating expenses set forth in 37 subsection (4) of this section is prima facie evidence to establish the authenticity of the documents.

38 (6)(a) It is the policy of this state:

39 (A) To encourage the settlement of cases brought under this section; and

40 (B) For courts to enforce the terms of settlements described in paragraph (b) of this subsection
41 to the fullest extent possible, except when to do so would violate the law or would clearly
42 contravene public policy.

43 (b) In a proceeding under this section, the court may enforce the terms set forth in a stipulated 44 judgment of paternity signed by the parties, a judgment of paternity resulting from a settlement on 45 the record or a judgment of paternity incorporating a settlement agreement:

1 (A) As contract terms using contract remedies;

2 (B) By imposing any remedy available to enforce a judgment, including but not limited to con-
 3 tempt; or

4 (C) By any combination of the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph.

5 (c) A party may seek to enforce an agreement and obtain remedies described in paragraph (b)
 6 of this subsection by filing a motion, serving notice on the other party in the manner provided by
 7 ORCP 7 and, if a remedy under paragraph (b)(B) of this subsection is sought, complying with the
 8 statutory requirements for that remedy. All claims for relief arising out of the same acts or omis-
 9 sions must be joined in the same proceeding.

10 (d) Nothing in paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection limits a party's ability, in a separate pro-
 11 ceeding, to file a motion to set aside, alter or modify a judgment under ORS 109.165 or to seek 12 enforcement of an ancillary agreement to the judgment.

13 (7) If a man's paternity of a child has been established under ORS 109.070 and the paternity has 14 not been disestablished before proceedings are initiated under ORS 109.125, the court may not ren-15 der a judgment under ORS 109.124 to 109.230 establishing another man's paternity of the child unless 16 the judgment also disestablishes the paternity established under ORS 109.070.

17 SECTION 10. ORS 109.165 is amended to read:

18 109.165. (1) Upon motion of either party, the court may set aside, alter or modify any portion 19 of the judgment that provides for the support of the minor child [or child attending school, as defined
 20 in ORS 107.108]. As to any installment or payment of money that has accrued up to the time the 21 nonmoving party, other than the state, is served with a motion to set aside, alter or modify the 22 judgment, the judgment is final and the court may not change it. However, the court may allow a 23 credit against child support arrearages for periods of time, excluding reasonable parenting time un-24 less otherwise provided by order or judgment, during which the obligor, with the knowledge and 25 consent of the obligee or pursuant to court order, has physical custody of the child. [A child at-
 26 tending school is a party for purposes of this section.]

27 (2) The moving party shall state in the motion, to the extent known:

28 (a) Whether there is pending in this state or any other jurisdiction any type of support pro-
 29 ceeding involving the child, including a proceeding brought under ORS 25.287, 109.100, 125.025,
 30 416.400 to 416.465, 419B.400 or 419C.590 or ORS chapter 110; and

31 (b) Whether there exists in this state or any other jurisdiction a support order, as defined in 32 ORS 110.303, involving the child, other than the judgment the party is moving to set aside, alter or 33 modify.

34 (3) The moving party shall include with the motion a certificate regarding any pending support
 35 proceeding and any existing support order other than the judgment the party is moving to set aside,
 36 alter or modify. The party shall use a certificate that is in a form established by court rule and in-
 37 clude information required by court rule and subsection (2) of this section.

38 (4)(a) It is the policy of this state:

39 (A) To encourage the settlement of cases brought under this section; and

40 (B) For courts to enforce the terms of settlements described in paragraph (b) of this subsection
 41 to the fullest extent possible, except when to do so would violate the law or would clearly
 42 contravene public policy.

43 (b) In a proceeding under subsection (1) of this section, the court may enforce the terms set
 44 forth in a stipulated order or judgment signed by the parties, an order or judgment resulting from
 45 a settlement on the record or an order or judgment incorporating a settlement agreement:

1 (A) As contract terms using contract remedies;

2 (B) By imposing any remedy available to enforce an order or judgment, including but not limited
3 to contempt; or

4 (C) By any combination of the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph.

5 (c) A party may seek to enforce an agreement and obtain remedies described in paragraph (b)
6 of this subsection by filing a motion, serving notice on the other party in the manner provided by
7 ORCP 7 and, if a remedy under paragraph (b)(B) of this subsection is sought, complying with the
8 statutory requirements for that remedy. All claims for relief arising out of the same acts or omis-
9 sions must be joined in the same proceeding.

10 (d) Nothing in paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection limits a party’s ability, in a separate pro-
11 ceeding, to file a motion to modify an order or judgment under subsection (1) of this section or to 12 seek enforcement of an ancillary agreement to the order or judgment.

13 SECTION 11. ORS 416.400 is amended to read:

14 416.400. As used in ORS 416.400 to 416.465, unless the context requires otherwise:

15 (1) “Administrator” has the meaning given that term in ORS 25.010.

16 (2) “Court” means any circuit court of this state and any court in another state having juris-
17 diction to determine the liability of persons for the support of another person.

18 (3) “Court order” means any judgment or order of any Oregon court that orders payment of a 19 set or determinable amount of support money by the subject parent and does not include an order 20 or judgment in any proceeding in which the court did not order support.

21 (4) “Department” means the Department of Justice of this state or its equivalent in any other 22 state from which a written request for establishment or enforcement of a support obligation is re-
23 ceived under ORS 416.415.

24 (5) “Dependent child” means any person under the age of 18 who is not otherwise emancipated,
25 self-supporting, married or a member of the Armed Forces of the United States. [“Dependent child”
26 also means a child attending school as defined in ORS 107.108.]

27 (6) “Office” means the office of the Division of Child Support or the office of the district attor-28 ney.

29 (7) “Parent” means the natural or adoptive father or mother of a dependent child or youth
30 offender. “Parent” also means stepparent when the person has an obligation to support a dependent 31 child under ORS 108.045.

32 (8) “Past support” means the amount of child support that could have been ordered and accu-33 mulated as arrears against a parent for the benefit of a child for any period of time during which 34 the child was not supported by the parent and for which period no support order was in effect.

35 (9) “Public assistance” means any money payments made by the state that are paid to or for the 36 benefit of any dependent child or youth offender, including but not limited to payments made so that 37 food, shelter, medical care, clothing, transportation or other necessary goods, services or items may 38 be provided, and payments made in compensation for the provision of the necessities. “Public as-39 sistance” does not include money payments made by the state to or for the benefit of a dependent 40 child as the result of the child’s removal from the parent’s home against the wishes of the parent, 41 if the Department of Human Services determines after completion of a child protective services as-
