

114TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 302

To establish in the Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor of the Department of State a Special Envoy for the Human Rights of LGBT Peoples.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JANUARY 29, 2015

Mr. MARKEY (for himself, Mrs. SHAHEEN, Mrs. MURRAY, Ms. WARREN, Mr. DURBIN, Mr. MERKLEY, Mr. CARDIN, Mr. COONS, Mr. FRANKEN, Ms. MIKULSKI, Ms. BALDWIN, Mr. WHITEHOUSE, Mrs. GILLIBRAND, Mr. SANDERS, Mr. LEAHY, Mr. WYDEN, Mr. SCHUMER, Mr. BROWN, Mrs. BOXER, Mrs. FEINSTEIN, Mr. BOOKER, Ms. CANTWELL, Mr. MURPHY, Ms. HIRONO, Mr. CASEY, Mr. SCHATZ, and Mr. BLUMENTHAL) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To establish in the Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor of the Department of State a Special Envoy for the Human Rights of LGBT Peoples.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “International Human 5 Rights Defense Act of 2015”.

1 SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.

2 In this Act:

3 (1) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMIT-
4 TEES.—The term “appropriate congressional com-5 mittees” means—

6 (A) the Committee on Foreign Relations 7 and the Committee on Appropriations of the 8 Senate; and

9 (B) the Committee on Foreign Affairs and 10 the Committee on Appropriations of the House
11 of Representatives.

12 (2) GENDER IDENTITY.—The term “gender 13 identity” means the gender-related identity, appear-14 ance, or mannerisms or other gender-related charac-15 teristics of an individual, with or without regard to 16 the individual’s designated sex at birth.

17 (3) LGBT.—The term “LGBT” means lesbian,
18 gay, bisexual, or transgender.

19 (4) SEXUAL ORIENTATION.—The term “sexual 20 orientation” means homosexuality, heterosexuality, 21 or bisexuality.

22 SEC. 3. FINDINGS.

23 Congress makes the following findings:

24 (1) Eighty-two countries prohibit the public 25 support of the LGBT community, promote 26 homophobia across society, or criminalize homosex-

1 uality. That is equal to more than 40 percent of 2 United Nations Member States.

3 (2) In seven countries, homosexuality is a crime
4 that is punishable by death.

5 (3) Around the world, LGBT people face dis-
6 crimination, hatred, violence, and bigotry.

7 (4) Violence and discrimination based on sexual 8 orientation and gender identity are documented in 9 the Department of State’s annual Human Rights 10 Report to Congress. The 2013 report continues to 11 show a clear pattern of increased human rights vio-12 lations in every region of the world based on sexual 13 orientation and gender identity. These violations in-14 clude murder, rape, torture, death threats, extortion, 15 imprisonment, as well as loss of employment, hous-
16 ing, access to health care, and other forms of soci-17 etal stigma and discrimination. The report further 18 documents growing LGBT-specific restrictions on 19 basic freedoms of assembly, press, and speech in 20 every region of the world.

21 (5) In Jamaica and other countries, discrimina-22 tion against LGBT people, including “corrective 23 rape” of lesbian women, occurs all too frequently 24 and with relative impunity.

1 (6) In 2013, the Government of the Russian
2 Federation passed a law banning “Homosexual 3 Propaganda”, which effectively makes it a crime to 4 publically support LGBT equality. The Russian law
5 is the basis for similar anti-propaganda legislation 6 threatened or introduced in countries across Eastern 7 Europe and Central Asia, including Lithuania,
8 Kyrgyzstan, and Belarus.

9 (7) In February 2014, the Government of 10 Uganda adopted a law that makes “aggravated ho-11 mosexuality” a crime punishable with life imprison-12 ment and endangers any individual arbitrarily found 13 to support LGBT people. Concurrently, the Govern-14 ment of Uganda also passed laws severely limiting 15 the basic freedoms of speech and assembly for 16 LGBT citizens. While the Constitutional Court over-17 turned this law on a technicality in August 2014, 18 leaders in Uganda have pledged to pursue similar 19 legislation, and LGBT persons continue to be sub-20 jected to discrimination and violence.

21 (8) The Government of Gambia passed an “ag-22 gravated homosexuality” law in October 2014. The 23 conditions in Gambia for LGBT persons have been 24 deteriorating, and there have been troubling reports 25 of LGBT individuals having been arrested and

1 threatened with torture for their sexual orientation
2 and gender identity.

3 (9) In December 2013, the Government of Ni-
4 geria adopted a law further criminalizing homosex-
5 uality. The law also criminalizes supporting LGBT 6 people in any way, endangering the neighbors, 7 friends, doctors, and landlords of LGBT people.

8 (10) The anti-homosexuality laws in Gambia,
9 Nigeria, and elsewhere not only endanger all LGBT 10 individuals in those countries, but also pose serious 11 risks for those associated with or caring for LGBT 12 people. In addition, international HIV workers could 13 be at risk since the treatment of at-risk populations
14 may constitute support for LGBT people. Studies 15 have shown that when LGBT people, especially 16 LGBT youth, face discrimination, they are less likely 17 to seek HIV testing, prevention, and treatment serv-18 ices.

19 (11) On December 6, 2011, President Barack
20 Obama released the Presidential Memorandum—
21 International Initiatives to Advance the Human 22 Rights of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender 23 Persons. The memorandum directed all Federal 24 agencies engaged abroad to ensure that United

1 States diplomacy and foreign assistance promote and 2 protect the human rights of LGBT persons.

3 (12) Secretary of State John Kerry announced
4 that the United States Government would review
5 United States diplomatic relationships with Nigeria
6 and Uganda in light of their recent anti-LGBT ac-
7 tions. Announcements by the Obama Administration
8 on March 23, 2014, and June 19, 2014, indicated 9 the United States Government would emphasize the 10 importance of human rights in Uganda by cutting 11 $6,400,000 in funding for the Interreligious Council
12 of Uganda because of its support for the Anti-Ho-
13 mosexuality Act, halting a survey designed to mini-
14 mize the spread of HIV/AIDS because of potential 15 harm to respondents, imposing short-term travel 16 bans on Ugandan military officials, halting some 17 joint military exercises with the Ugandan military, 18 relocating funds for a public health institute, and re-
19 stricting entry into the United States of those spe-
20 cific individuals who have committed human rights 21 violations against LGBT persons. Despite the recent 22 anti-LGBT actions by the Government of Nigeria,
23 President Obama has not conducted a similar review 24 of the United States diplomatic relationship with

1 that country or taken steps to emphasize the impor-
2 tance of human rights for LGBT persons there.

3 (13) In December 2013, the Supreme Court of 4 India reversed a lower court ruling and reinstated
5 the criminalization of homosexuality in the second 6 most populous nation on Earth. In April 2014, In-7 dia's Supreme Court recognized transgender people 8 as a third gender, improving the legal rights of 9 transgender people in that country. Given these two 10 court decisions, the degree of human rights protec-
11 tions for LGBT persons in India is uncertain.

12 (14) Removing institutionalized discrimination
13 and targeted persecution against LGBT people
14 around the world is a critical step in the promotion 15 of human rights and global health internationally.

16 (15) According to the Trans Murder Monitoring 17 Project, which monitors homicides of transgender in-18 dividuals, 226 transgender persons were killed be-19 tween November 2013 and November 2014 world-20 wide. Violence against transgender individuals is 21 particularly alarming in Brazil, where 113
22 transgender individuals were murdered in the one-
23 year period from October 1, 2013, to September 30, 24 2014.

1 (16) According to the International Guidelines
2 on HIV/AIDS and Human Rights, as published by 3 the United Nations High Commissioner for Human 4 Rights, countries should review and reform criminal 5 laws and correctional systems to ensure that they 6 are consistent with international human rights obli-
7 gations and are not misused in the context of HIV 8 or targeted against vulnerable groups.

9 (17) For the world's 1,800,000,000 youth, anti-10 homosexuality laws and discrimination against 11 LGBT persons poses significant risks. LGBT youth 12 who come out to their family or community often 13 face rejection, homelessness, and limited educational 14 and economic opportunities. These factors contribute 15 to increased risks of substance abuse, suicide, and 16 HIV infection among LGBT youth.

17 (18) On September 26, 2014, the United Na-
18 tions Human Rights Council passed a resolution co-
19 sponsored by the United States that expressed con-
20 cern about discrimination and violence experienced 21 by LGBT persons around the world. Fourteen coun-
22 tries opposed the resolution, including Algeria, Bot-
23 swana, Cote d'Ivoire, Ethiopia, Gabon, Indonesia,
24 Kenya, Kuwait, Maldives, Morocco, Pakistan, Saudi

1 Arabia, the United Arab Emirates, and the Russian 2 Federation.

3 SEC. 4. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

4 It is the policy of the United States—

5 (1) to take effective action to prevent and re-6 spond to discrimination and violence against all peo-
7 ple on any basis internationally, including sexual ori-
8 entation and gender identity, and that human rights
